of 84 Years-His Children's

Children's Children William Flinton, another of London's oldest citizens, is now numbered with the dead, and by his death the city sustains the loss of a popular and esteemed member of the community. Mr. Flinton died this morning at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Eliza Hunt, 1,041 Mabel street, East London. He was born in Scarborough. Yorkshire, England, in 1813. His long life of 84 years was filled with interesting adventures of one kind and another. At the age of 17 he came to Canada, settling in Montreal. He was one of those who shouldered a musket, and served through the Mackenzie-Papineau trouble of 1837-39. He also witnessed the shooting of Chenier. After the strife had ended he removed to Toronto and thence to this city in 1854, liv- tion or dyspepsia. ing here cintinuously ever since. He leaves behind to mourn his loss one son-Mr. Thos. Flinton, of London Furniture Company-and four daughters, who are Mrs. Eliza Hunt. of East London; Mrs. S. Graham and Mrs. F. L. V. Ross, of Toronto, and Mrs. Sarah Patton, of New Tacoma, Washington Territory. He was grandfather to 30 children and great-grandfather to 50 more. Two sisters also survive him, who are residents of Freemont, Ohio.

A Corn Photographed by X Rays Shows a small, hard kernel, covered by layers of hard skin. This tiny corn causes keen pain. The only sure means of extracting it, without pain, in a day, is Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sure? Yes. Painless? Yes. Cheap? Yes, indeed! Try it.

If your rill is bitter, the quicker you swallow it the better. FAGGED OUT .- None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is.
