LONDON'S CHEAPEST STORE

WHY THESE PRICES?

This store never stands still. There is an everlasting friction between new goods coming in and just as new goods going out. The going out stream must be just as constant as the incoming. The price spur is applied when any line of goods hesitates. Just now it's the PARASOL LINE that is not going as quick as we would like. We make it about half price to hurry them. We make three prices to clear:

FIRST LOT, Worth $1 25, for 39c. SECOND LOT.

There is quite a number in this line, Prices away up to $2 50, in plain Black Frilled, White with Lace Insertion; Silk Shot Effects in several fashionable colors; Black and Colored, trimmed with Wide Lace. This second lot we clear at 8qc.

THIRD LOT.

Fine Black and White Silk Mixed Parasols, worth $2 50 and $3 50, for $1 25-a great deal less than half price.

COME QUICK. THIS IS YOUR PARASOL OPPORTUNITY.

All Are Good---

Some are better. Our Hosiery Department has a reputation for selling the best. Whether you want a Pair of Hose for 10c or desire to pay five times as much, you get here the best to be had for the price. We are convinced we lead all others in quality at the price.

Have you had a pair of Seamless Black Hose worth x5c for 10c pair?

Millinery Bargain:

We still have quite a number of those TRIMMED LADIES' SAILORS at 15c each—the newest shaped Sailors.

> LITTLE SAVINGS ALL THE TIME. BIG SAVINGS MOST OF THE TIME, BELOW COST SAVINGS MANY TIMES.

Thus it is our stores become the easiest place to buy what you need to buy, and the surest place to pay what you ought to pay, and no more.

"Nothing's too good for the Irish, and Port Stanley isn't big enough," was the expression of a well-known Irishman, and although this was but the utterance of a solitary individual, it expressed the sentiments of 8,000 people or thereabouts, who crowded the heights on old Erie's shores yesterday, where the annual picnic of the | with P. Mulhall second. Irish Benevolent Society was held. It was by long odds the largest picnic ever held at that resort, if the word of those who have attended all the big picnics for years is worth anything. Everything was in the Irishmen's The weather and a series of happy coincidents, coupled with the untiring efforts of Len. Fitzgerald, Dr. Geo. C. Davis, P. Mulkern, T. W. Scandrett, C. W. The game was between the Orients, of this city, and the Dominions, of St. Thomas. There were plenty of runs, but all on one side, and the St. Thomas boys took home the biggest nest of goose eggs they ever discovered. Gibbs occupied the box for London, and all that the Dominions secured off him was two singles and one two-bagger. Moore pitched for St. nas, and was hammered all over the field and up the cliff's side by the weakest batters.
