GAIETY REIGNS IN OLD LONDON

As a Result of the Recent Jubilations

And the Queen's Decision to Visit Ireland Instead of Italy.

Society in the Green Isle on the Tiptoe of Pleasurable Expectation-Quartet of Lady Queensburys-Westminster Abbey Crumbling to Pieces.

[Special Cable Letter.]

London, March 10 .- It is alleged in some quarters that Queen Victoria's decision to stay in her own dominions instead of going to Italy, and all the Jubilations in England in consequence, are not entirely due to the causes attributed by the British press. It is stated that the Italian Government had daily been growing more nervous as the date of the Queen's visit approached, and finally notified her majesty's government that it would not care to accept the responsibility of the sovereign's safety, owing to the strong recrudescence of the anarchistic movement throughout Europe. It is also alleged that reports from other powers confirmed the Italian impressions. This, it is claimed by some parties, was the chief factor in the sudden change of plans, though doubtless many of her minis-ters thought it would be better policy for her to remain at home while the nation was in the throes of war.

In any case the result, with the accompanying celebrations, and the an-nouncement of the Queen's coming trip to Ireland has had the most beneficial effect upon the United Kingdom. Galety reigns, trade has revived, and shopkeepers, especially those of the metropolis, look forward to big business. It has long been a standing grievance that the Queen so seldom visited London, but her present stay is fully atoning for her past alleged ne-glect. As for society in Ireland, it is in a state of hubbub and excitement as has not been seen for many a year. Regardless of politics, the Queen's visit to Dublin will doubtless be made the occasion for unprecedented festivities, though throughout Great Brit-ain there will be some tension until Queen has recrossed the channel in safety.

DRAWING-ROOM DEBUTANTES. The drawing-rooms promise to be specially interesting. Among the debutantes will be a daughter of Mrs. Arthur Paget, and the daughter of another woman equally well known to the public, Mrs. Langtry. Mrs. Cornwallis West will be Miss Jeanne Langtry's social godmother. Other de-butantes are Lady Victoria Sybil Grey, daughter of Earl Grey and niece of the Earl of Minto, governor-general of Canada; the Marquis of Cholmonde-ley's daughter, Lady Lettice Joan, and Lady Margaret Sackville, daugh-Charles Coventry, who recently changed her American name, Whitehouse, to that ancient English patronymic, and the beautiful and rich Countess Cromartie, who recently married

"WELL WITH CHILDE." Major Childe, who was killed after leading F Squadron of the South African Light Horse in a victorious assault, and whose own epitaph was "Is It well with Childe? It is well," has been succeeded in the command by Sir B. Leighton, who served with the American troops against Spain, and wrote a book about it. This adventurous baronet, who is a cousin of the late Major Child, and who was standing beside the latter when Childe was killed, went out to South Africa as correspondent of an illustrated paper, and obtained a commission in the South African Light Horse. He has now been made a major commanding a squadron. While he fights the Boers, the youthful Lady Leighton occupies the unique position in England of master of the

Not so when asked for a pile cure. He knows that Dr. Chase's Ointment the only remedy which actually cures every form of piles. It has many mitations, but its wonderful record of cures has never been duplicated.

Mr. James A. Bowles, painter and paper hanger, a member of the counl at Embro, Ont., states: "For over s that I was forced to give up work. I suffered untold agony from the terrible itching, and they would pro-trude, causing the greatest misery. "In spite of all the remedies I used

Dr. Chase's Ointment has never yet been known to fail to cure piles, wheth-or itching, bleeding or protruding. in 1887, a pathetic reconciliation taking place, not only between husband and wife, but with the sons, who had also been estranged.

TOO EASY WITH CRONJE. There is a good deal of chagrin displayed over what is termed Lord Roberts' generous treatment of Gen.Cronje the press to hysterically overrate Cronje's bravery. Many references are now made to Cronje's alleged dishonesty in the former war, in accepting the surrender of the British garrison of Potschefstroom when a general armis-tice had been proclaimed. Vanity Fair says there is a vein of sentimentality in the Anglo-Saxon nature which some times transgresses reasonable limits. Just at present it is engaged in elevating Cronje to the level of a hero. The government is contemplating sending the Boer leader to the Island of St. Helena, but no definite decision has been reached. On this subject the Morning Post publishes a letter, saying: "In view of the fact that the very name of St. Helena causes a passionate lition in France, it would be for ish for England to arouse this feeling by selecting Napoleon's place of banishment for Cronje

According to the newly-appointed surveyor of Westminster Abbey, that ancient edifice is fast crumbling to pieces, owing to the action of the fumes of manufactories on the opposite side of the river, on the weather-worn stones. A CURIOUS ROMANCE. A curious romance comes from Chester, where there was recently admitted to the workhouse a Capt. Salisbury, son of the late member of parliament for Chester. Though only 44 years old he has had a remarkable career as a soldier, war correspondent and author, finally falling upon very hard days. It seemed as if this distinguished pauper was doomed to spend the rest of his life in the poordoomed to house, when there suddenly appeared on the scene an apparently rich woman, described as Miss Emily Cun-ninghame, of Ireland. The sequel occurred Thursday last when Capt. Salisbury was married to his visitor. They departed for Chester in great style and amidst no end of sensation.

STEPHANIE AND LONYAY. The often-postponed marriage of the Crown Princess Stephanie of Austria to Count Lonyay seems to be on the eve of occurring at Trieste, where Count Lonyay has taken a residence, and whether Princess Stephanie departed from Vienna Thursday. Neither the Vienna nor the Brussels courts are any more favorably disposed towards the groom than when the marriage was first noted. King Leopold thinks it a scandal only a little less terrible than that of his oldest daughter, while Queen Henrietta hides her head with shame. But Princess Stephanie, regardless of it all, throws up her court life, tiaras, diamonds ter of Countess De La Warr; while and gold embroidered robes, has her among the brides are the Hon. Mrs. income reduced from 800,000 to 200,000 crowns, and goes to live with a poor country gentleman. The people of Vienna, it is said, scarcely talk of any-thing but this great sacrifice for the sake of love.

Chicago, March 10 .- Efforts of contractors to place non-union men at work on buildings in various parts of the city, work on which has been interrupted by the strike, resulted in several encounters between union and non-union men, and but for the presence of strong guards of police serious trouble might have occurred.

Among the Boers.

[Special to Toronto Globe.] London, March 10.-The Times has the following special today:

Poplar Grove, March 9.—The report of the presence of President Kruger in Wednesday's fight and the entire disorganization of the Boer forces is confirmed. All preparations had been made for the next defense to be made movements first bewildered and then frightened the enemy into retreat. The chief items of interest in Wednesday's events were the obvious lack of a guiding spirit among the Boers and the individual demoralization of the enmy. The whole day constituted an inglorious defeat and a demoralizing confession of inabilty to check Lord Roberts' advance.

The submission of the Free State is being demanded by the burghers from their unwill ing President. It is expected Fact Established by Bacteriothat the submission will be made within a week.

London, Saturday, March 10 .- No- British Steamer Sunk-The Hay-Paunthing of importance has been received concerning the military movements in South Africa. It is pretty clear that Gen. Roberts' operations on March 4 failed in their main object through the rapidity of the Boer retreat. The sixth division was intended to turn the Boer left, while the seventh and ninth divisions inclosed their right, the cavalry meantime shutting off the line of retreat by closing the road to Bloem-

THE LADYSMITH TROOPS. A dispatch to the Daily News, dated Ladysmith, March 9, says that Gen. Hunter's division will advance beyond Ladysmith. The other troops are preparing for immediate movement as circumstances develop.

BOERS AT BIGGARSBERG. The Boers are reported to be still holding the Biggarsberg range in considerable force, but they are sending their stores to the rear. They also continue to fortify the Drakensberg passes, especially Van Reenen's pass.

a Boer scouting party, while reconnoitering in Koodoosrand district captured 150 horses belonging to the enemy. They found that the British had remained stationary since the Poplar Grove engagement.

BOMBARDING MAFEKING. The latest intelligence from Mafeking shows that that town is subjected to a continuous fierce bombardment by the Boer besieging force.

No important news has been received from Natal or the Orange River or Vaal River fronts. Heavy rains are falling over the Orange Free State and the Transvaal.

BASEBALL

Woodstock Sentinel-Review: ex-Manager Black, of the Guelph Maple Leafs, was in town yesterday, he claimed to have the Brantford franchise, and have signed several players, among others, Damoth, the pitcher Guelph got from Detroit, and Lafleur, who caught for the Leafs last season. Miller, young second baseman, who was in the Michigan State League in 1897 and International in 1898. Black made some overtures to some of last season's Woodstock team now in town.

FISTIC New York, March 9 .- Terry McGovern, of Brooklyn, now holds two cham-pionships, the bantam and feather weights of pugilism. Tonight at the Broadway A. C. he more than proved that he is in a peculiar class by his signal defeat of Oscar Gardner, the "Omaha Kid." In the opening round of the bout Gardner, who was by long odds a non-favorite, caught Terry squarely with a left swing on the jaw, and Terry measured his length on the floor. The little Brooklynite was equal to the occasion, however, and regained his feet within two seconds, sending back as good and better than he got. In the second round Terry's attack was cyclonic, and with a well-directed left he put Gardner to the floor. Five times in the second round Gardner sought floor, and each time he went down the Kid almost took the count. When the boys came up for the third round, Gardner was in difficulty, and McGovern was more than fairly fresh.McGov-ern rushed like a mad bulldog at his adversary and threw a left to the jaw which staggered the western lad towards the ropes. Then Terry sent a right to the face, which put Gardner staggering in the opposite corner, and seeing that Oscar was helplessly in-able to defend himself, the little cham-pion stepped in and landed a left swinging hook on the mark, which put Gardner down and out.

"SEEING THE ELEPHANT." New York, March 10.-A well-dressed young man, somewhat dissipated in looks, gave himself up to the police in Jersey City today (Saturday), with the announcement that he had stolen about $2,000 from L. Coffee & Co., of Toronto. His name was Robert J. Graham, and he had been the firm's confidential agent. He spent the money in notorious resorts in the Tenderloin and wished to be taken into custody.

MENT. London, March 10 .- No action has been taken by the government re-garding the change which has come over the Nicaragua convention as reported through the lengthy cable dis-patches dealing with the action of the foreign relations committee at Wash-ington. The United States Government, apparently, has made no representations to Lord Salisbury since the convention was signed.

"DROWNING THE SHAMROCK." London, March 10.-Replying to Mr. Bloemfontein, March 8—10 p.m.—News has just reached here from Petrusberg, about 45 miles west of this city, that day, whether the government would give a shilling to each Irish soldier on St. Patrick's day, to enable him to celebrate the occasion by "drowning the shamrock." Mr. Joseph Powell-Willis, financial secretary of the war office, said he thought the army funds could hardly be devoted to that purpose. It is suggested that all the Irish soldlers, whether in Irish regiments or on St. Patrick's day, and that the same privilege be extended to the Hartmann, the Danish music composer, is dead.

The Pall Mall Gazette comments on the new situation as follows: "The foreign relations committee has certainly gone far to wreck the Hav-Pauncefote treaty, if only for this reason, powers other than the two most directly concerned might refuse to acquiesce in the modification, even if the British Government accept it.
