A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors.

Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid ment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a normal tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time.

"The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice—although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine - which she knew would help her her letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: — Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman.

"The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system. I can walk "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs.

E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass. Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; all ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb; backache; irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial letters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for doubt. Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness.

Truly is it said that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women, and no other medicine; don't forget this when some druggist wants to sell you something else 5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimenials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

GUEST OF MRS. "JACK" GARDNER

Discussing Drama, He Declares The Stage, Not the School, Place to Learn Art.

New York, Nov. 3.-After an absence of fourteen years, Sir Charles Wyndham, who is accredited by English theatergoers to the high station in the field of comedy which Sir Henry Irving occupies in melodrama, arrived here yesterday. Accompanied by his man servant he was a passenger on the Baltic from Liverpool. Miss Mary Moore, in public life Mrs. Albery, Sir Charles' leading actress amind. Charles' leading actress, arrived on the same ship. Miss Moore was accompan-

Sir Charles has come over in advance of his company of eighteen or twenty persons, who are expected next week on the Oceanic. Under the management of Charles Frohman the comedians, from the new theater, St. Martin's Lane, will play a two months' engagement at Daniel Frohman's Lyceum Theater in this city, beginning Nov. 14.

Sir Charles is a veteran of the American civil war, having served as a surgeon in the Federal Army with Gen.
Banks as one of his commanding officers. He was brigade surgeon of the Nineteenth Army Corps, and at one time was detailed to Fort Schuyler in the Sound. That was a whole generation before he was knighted. The comedian, who entered the army friendless surgeon, came back yesterday, joying over the triumphs in his stage career and sad over the fact that many of those he knew in the days of his struggles are gone. Sir Charles, carrying his years with marvelous ease, is unseared and unseamed by time. His hair, although turning, is still thick. He is supple, vigorous, quick. He still looks and acts time has come when the teachings of the Socialists and the general hatred of the population against the army has brought a change, and in many cases the worm has begun to turn.

She wore a very large browning to get back," said Sir Charles. "I was two years and a half in the army and this is my fourth visit to America as an actor. my fourth visit to America as an actor. "Before we begin work Mrs. Albery and I will be guests at Mrs. Jack Gardiner's place, near Boston, and later at the country place of Mr. Jas. Roosevelt, the President's cousin, on the Hudson the Hudson.

"I shall first present 'David Garrick,' and after that Henry Howard Davies' 'Mrs. Gorringe's Necklace' and, probably, 'The Case of Rebellious Susan,' by Henry Arthur Jones. I shall probably play one week in Boston and one week in Philadelphia."

Sir Charles was asked what he thought of Mme. Rejane's proposed conservatory of acting in this city. A hopeless smile stole over his features as he answered: "I don't believe in schools of acting, for none of them will be the least benefit. The place to learn dramatic art and win success under the best teachers is the stage itself "What is the present tendency in dramatic taste in London?" he was "Frivolity, I am sorry to say," replied Sir Charles. "But there is one very healthful symptom, a harking back to the old comic opera. The managers are not to blame for the tendency to frivolity. It is the commercial people. Everybody is working so hard during the day that come night they down to think, Satiety is the

SHE SAVED THE TRAIN

Garbed In Nightgown Woman Saddles Pony and Hurries to Rescue.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 3.-Presence of mind of Mrs. Horace Spaulding, residing a few miles south of Lacrosse, Wis., saved many lives on a Burlington train and averted property damage amounting to thousands of dollars.

Mrs. Spaulding was awakened by a passenger train in the night. She arose and looked out of her window. A bright light north of her home along he route of the Burlington attracted her attention and investigation revealed the fact that a small bridge was burning. Without stopping to dress she hastily saddled a pony. Mrs. Spaulding urged it into a mad gallop, rode over the country roads in the darkness and arrived at the junction just in time to stop an approaching train before it reached the bridge.

must know how cheap she can buy her skirts, coats, raincoats and costumes.

Why? Simply because the averige woman today, whose means is limited and finds it very difficult in going too far with her money, must understand her position clearly, and seek the spot where her wearing apparel is the best in make, best in material, and, best of all, cheapest in price. Things today are not what they were, each and every town the size of London would have one store, and to that store you were compelled to go, and lay your hard cash down on goods of no value, and of no importance. But today, we find that competition is very keen, and to meet obligations that we are doomed to, one must consider well, how, when, and on what one's goes to. To bring this to a finish we will say this, that we for one, of the general run of merchants obliged to buy our material
