We Are Selling Good Clothing On Credit

There is no reason now why you should wear chean clothes. Though they cost little money you are not saving any in the end, and you look shabby most of the time you wear them. You cannot plead lack of ready money as the cause, since we stand ready to serve you with quality clothes at a fair price, and give you good time to pay while you wear them.

We will be glad to show you our new goods and explain to you our methods of doing business:

There had been some demand for a reduction of passenger rates to a two-cent basis, also a reduction of freight charges. There could be no hope for a reduction of the rates. The railway ommission would have to apply the principle that no corporation could reduce its rates below a figure that would not pay a dividend on the capital investment, and in the case of the T. and N. O. the railway had barely reached that point. "Does the statement of total net rev-
