

and lifted him up so that he was in the editor's seat. It was a hearing the ghostly old "44."

and demanded that he "could not be alone."

western Canada West.

and Captain, who now sat at his desk.

FAT, Sept. 11.—A sensation

in social circles over a match

did not take place yesterday

time ago a pretty young named Miss Myrtle, belonging

aboard, a niece of Senator Karl

C. L. Kaubach, M. P., for

County, fell in love with him,

and his heart did not

of the match, and he had to hope of breaking it off,

but only made heart-gone friends arranged to stay back to Halifax marry the man of her choice.

as a passenger by the steamer,

which arrived Wednesday.

he was on the wharf to meet alleged hilarious condition.

The situation, but used the

it, and arranged to get married

Lake's Carlton early next morning. The night

will see friend in social circles.

At the appointed

the groom and his friends were

but the bride was sequentially a note was delivered would be groom from his be-

stating that she had changed

and had taken an early

for Lueben, where she

to her friends' wonder

she was killed by the

Portage on the C. P. R. at

Paisley station yesterday after-

will be forwarded to their

the lower prairie by I. C. R. One of the unfortunate engineer, was named Hart to St. John, N. B., as a wife and child.

The other, son, was named Phillips; he

of Pictou, N. S., and

Sept. 15.—Following the at

the St. John Railway Company, the report of his burial, at Paisley, yesterday

in a few pieces of police

Mr. J. G. V. Victoria

sheets are doing a profitable

in the city just now, and the detective office show that it is destined to them to de-strengthen. This morning one

deprived of a partner, another

had lost his gold watch,

N. S., Sept. 15.—Colonel David

of Victoria, a prominent citizen, and for the last 20 years. He and was the

or Pictou.

now the silent and sounding given by her Father.

New dispatch of Sept. 15.—

Ernest Schilling, the coach-

was the husband of the coach-quite railroading every

Sunday, packs his trunk and

as mysteriously as he did the next day, he disappears.

He left his home

for a residence, Mr.

always repeated when the Mr. Morozini the next day the stores. The oil railroad cold at first, but as he became more willing to leave his daughter, finally advised him to go.

After a few days, he

negotiations were made in

Victoria, Green's Cham-

the lawyer. On calling them, he learned that his daughter

Mr. Schilling had been his business to the will was Mrs. Schilling for she does not return and

falling spirit.

This will be in the

Buckland medical student,

imposed the law to Davis and M. Foster called to request that the

the trial be adjourned.

the trial will be held on the 29th inst.

and after will cross our con-

few degrees further north no danger need be apprehended

North America, out of the mountains after the 20th inst.

and lift him up so that he is in the editor's seat. It was a hearing the ghostly old "44."

and demanded that he "could not be alone."

western Canada West.

and Captain, who now sat at his desk.

FAT, Sept. 11.—A sensation

in social circles over a match

did not take place yesterday

time ago a pretty young

named Miss Myrtle, belonging

aboard, a niece of Senator Karl

C. L. Kaubach, M. P., for

County, fell in love with him,

and his heart did not

of the match, and he had to

hope of breaking it off,

but only made heart-gone friends

arranged to stay back to Halifax

marry the man of her choice.

as a passenger by the steamer,

which arrived Wednesday.

he was on the wharf to meet

alleged hilarious condition.

The situation, but used the

it, and arranged to get married

Lake's Carlton early next

morning. The night

will see friend in social circles.

At the appointed

the groom and his friends were

but the bride was

sequentially a note was delivered

would be groom from his be-

stating that she had changed

and had taken an early

for Lueben, where she

to her friends' wonder

she was killed by the

Portage on the C. P. R. at

Paisley station yesterday after-

will be forwarded to their

the lower prairie by I. C. R. One of the unfortunate

engineer, was named Hart

to St. John, N. B., as a wife and child.

The other, son, was named Phillips; he

of Pictou, N. S., and

Sept. 15.—Following the at

the St. John Railway Company, the report of his bur-

ial, at Paisley, yesterday

in a few pieces of police

Mr. J. G. V. Victoria

sheets are doing a profitable

in the city just now, and

the detective office show that

it is destined to them to de-

strengthen. This morning one

deprived of a partner, another

had lost his gold watch,

N. S., Sept. 15.—Colonel David

of Victoria, a prominent citizen, and

for the last 20 years. He

and was the

or Pictou.

now the silent and sounding

given by her Father.

New dispatch of Sept. 15.—

Ernest Schilling, the coach-

was the husband of the coach-

quite railroading every

Sunday, packs his trunk and

as mysteriously as he did

the next day, he disappears.

He left his home

for a residence, Mr.

always repeated when

the Mr. Morozini the next day

the stores. The oil railroad

cold at first, but as he

became more willing to leave

his daughter, finally advised him to go.

After a few days, he

negotiations were made in

Victoria, Green's Cham-

the lawyer. On calling them,

he learned that his daughter

Mr. Schilling had been

his business to

the will was Mrs. Schilling

for she does not return and

falling spirit.

This will be in the

Buckland medical student,

imposed the law to Davis

and M. Foster called to request that the trial be adjourned.

the trial will be held on

the 29th inst.

and after will cross our con-