LIQUOR DISAPPEARED.

Chief Inspector Wilson, who was in the city yesterday, will make a visit in the northern part of the province next week to see if he can ascertain what became of a quantity of liquor taken from a car containing a considerable wet goods seized at St. Leonards and vicinity. When the car arrived in St. John a small quantity of liquor was missing, and it is suspected that it was taken in the Moncton yards. When the car was loaded there was a hole in the floor which had worn there, and the liquor was stored as far away from the hole as possible. Some one with a long arm was able to reach a few cases, however, and it disappeared through the floor.—Telegraph.

"That tenderfoot had wonderful luck," remarked Cactus Bill. "He held four aces four times in half an hour."

"That ain't the most of his luck," commented three-Finger Sam. "He had us so dazed that we let him cash in and catch the train."

SUDDEN DEATH OF SACKVILLE MAN

G. R. McCord, Barrister Found Dead on Street—Heart-failure the Cause.

Sackville, N. B., Feb. 2—The tragic death of George Rankin McCord, barrister, occurred about 12 o'clock last night. He was as well as usual yesterday and there was nothing to suggest that the end was near.

He left his office for home about 11 o'clock. An hour later his lifeless body was found on Lansdowne street, a few hundred yards from his home. Three college boys, who discovered his body, conveyed it to the residence of Prof. Desbarres, who summoned Dr. Calkin, but life had fled, heart failure being the cause of death. Deceased was a son of the late George C. McCord and Henrietta Bowser McCord. He leaves his wife, formerly Majorie Carter, Westmorland Point; his mother, who lives in East Pepperell; two brothers, Robert, of Montreal, and Edward, of East Pepperell, and one sister, Mrs. Burton H. Ford, of Sackville. He was forty-five years old. Deceased was a graduate of Mount Allison and Harvard and spent three years at the front. He won his compission of lieutenant and Military Cross on the field and was recognized as being a real soldier, loved by his associates who knew McCord to be a fearless, dauntless and faithful friend. Since returning from overseas deceased had been successfully practicing law in partnership with A. B. Copp, M. P.

Peace at Any Price.

Magistrate—Great Scott! Officer, how did these men come to be so badly bruised and battered up?

Officer—Please, your honor, they were discussing the peace settlement.
