The Manitoulin Guide calls upon the powers that there is any foundation in fact for the scandals that have arise in connection with the Carleton registrarship. The facts that a Catholic Church organ edited by another Mr. Coffey suddenly became a bitter and bigoted partisan organ, and that a third Mr. Coffey, young in years and unknown in politics, was preferred to a lugrative office over the heads of influential party veterans by the Government for whom the Record opened its batteries of bigotry and abuse, were merely fortuitous coincidences, having no connection with one another or with the Coffey family. Also the story that a special campaign number of the Record opened is a spec dences, having no connection with one another or with the Coffey family. The World's Ottawa correspondent gives a number of plausible reasons for the belief that Mr. Blake will take his time about provoking a party vote in the House. His leisurely policy will worry a number of persons who have money up on the size of the Government's majority, but he will of course choose ment's majority, but he will of attack, and the strongest possible ground of attack, and thereby better the chances of Liberal betters.

The Mail began bravely, but dropped the subject when opposed, and now contents itself with publishing the utterances of Mr. Goldwin Smith on the subject. And so it will be to the end of time. Canadians will become a nation, in close alliance with Britain, so long as it serves will be good neighbors to the peeple of the United States, will trade with them, eat and drink with them, intermarry with them, rejoice in their prosperity and grieve over their failures, but they will not range themselves under the Stars and Stripes; they will uphold their own flag until it waves over so many millions that no nation will venture to speak work both ways.

One of the Star's objects is to call attention to the need for increased protection to Canadian iron industry, which would also naturally myolve the creation of home markets for Canadian coal. Few Canadians have any appreciation of the extern and richness of their own country's mineral deposits. It is to be hoped that the Star may succeed in spreading the light on that subject.

Asionishing Success.

—It is the duty of every person who has used Bosche's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to thoir friends in curing consumption, severe coughs, cronp, astima, pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 30,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it falled was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada.
