

HURRAH! FOR GOOD COFFEE.

THE CANADIAN TEMPERANCE LEAGUE'S UNDERTAKING.

A $30,000 Company—Opening of the Elm-street Coffee Palace—The Noble Ward—Then and Now—Dr. Alkins Tells Some Strange Tales—Interesting Reminiscences—Spicy Speeches.

Although it was a cheerless night the large hall of the new Temperance League Coffee Palace in place of the old Elm-street building, was filled with people on the occasion of the formal opening of the institution. The proceedings were highly interesting, and the event marks an epoch in the progress of temperance work in this city.

The company was formed a year ago with a capital of $30,000, in 18,000 shares of $2 each, to establish and operate coffee palaces in places frequented by workmen; also to provide reading, recreation, bath and lodging rooms in connection with the same.

The first coffee house erected by the company was the one opened last night. The building is of red brick, three stories in height and 55 feet wide on Elm-street by 85 feet on Terminus. The basement contains the heating apparatus, laundry, storerooms and lavatories.

THE LAST OF HANBURY.

Consigned to His Final Resting Place in St. James' Cemetery.

The remains of Henry Hanbury were laid at rest in St. James' Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral took place from the establishment of W. H. Stone, where the body had been enclosed in a handsome coffin.

On the coffin were laid a few floral offerings—handsome wreath of roses and forget-me-nots from Mr. H. Slight, a cross of chrysanthemums and forget-me-nots from the mourning widow, a bunch of chrysanthemums from the little son of Mr. Slight.

Rev. H. J. Moore, pastor of St. Margaret's Church, officiated at the grave, about which a few friends had congregated to witness the consigning of the body to the earth.

Mr. Hanbury was present, looking pale and worn.

Francis in a Billiard Room. John Hanbury, a young butcher of West Toronto Junction, came to the city last night and put up at the Albion Hotel. He is a crack shot at pool and in the first game he played he won several balls before his opponents made any.

With that the unknown players were invited to play with the champion, but he refused, saying that they would run out in ten minutes and Johnny got a cuff in the face. The row ended in the butcher being bodily kicked about the head that he was unconscious for three hours. He was removed to the hospital, where he is being treated, and is expected to be well in a few days.
