

TWELFTH YEAR.

"WHO IS GILCHRIST, Q.C.?"

CLAIMED TO BE A LAWYER PRACTISING IN TORONTO.

George W. Northedge, Chicago's "Genuine Baronet," said by the Washington Northedge to be a Jaded With a Swindling Scheme—A Million and a Title Together—The Local History of One of the Parties to the Testimony.

NEW YORK, March 1.—There arrived at the Fifth-avenue Hotel Saturday a man who registered as Sir George W. Northedge, of Chicago, and who presented himself as possessing a fortune of a million and a quarter dollars, although less than a month ago he was a poor carpenter occupying a plainly furnished room at No. 8229 State-street, Chicago, and having as little notion that he would be today a problem man and rich as that the heavens would fall.

It was in the afternoon of Feb. 4, he was finishing some work on the roof of a barn in the rear of 2220 L. St. in Chicago. He was weary with his day's work and anxious to get through. Just then a bustling little man called to him from the foot of the ladder.

"Come down," he said, "I desire to speak with you." Northedge clambered down, although he hadn't the remotest idea of what the stranger wanted.

"What do you want?" he asked at the bottom of the ladder. "To congratulate you on being the hero of a large fortune. I am Queen's Counsel, J. H. Gilchrist of Toronto, Ont., and London, England. I have been searching for you, sir, for months."

"Your great grandfather," continued the stranger, "was William Northedge, a baronet and a colonel in the English army. He owned large estates in Wells, Somersetshire, about 16 miles from Bath, England. It was from him that the fortune came and today you are the sole heir thereof."

A few hours later Northedge realized that everything he had been told was the truth. And he had good fortune heaped upon good luck. He soon learned that he was not only the heir to a fortune of a million and a quarter dollars, but also the owner of a large estate in the English title—Sir George Northedge, Bart. This second piece of good fortune came to him from another source entirely, an English advocate, A. E. de Lorie of Montreal, Canada, who had come to New York and put up at the Fifth-avenue Hotel.

The sequel. In Washington there are several people in possession of the name Northedge. They are William Henry Northedge, who claims the million but reports the title, which he says does not exist; George R. Northedge, Mary Northedge Jones, her sister, and William K. Northedge, who is the attorney of this city. The Chicago Northedge is declared by all these people to be George Atwater, alias Northedge, son of Colonel Northedge before the Colonel was married, and a man who has not always behaved as a gentleman.

According to the yarn of the Fifth-avenue Hotel, the man who came to New York and put up at the Fifth-avenue Hotel was a man who had been in the "reign of terror." They are William Henry Northedge, who claims the million but reports the title, which he says does not exist; George R. Northedge, Mary Northedge Jones, her sister, and William K. Northedge, who is the attorney of this city.

The Chicago Northedge is declared by all these people to be George Atwater, alias Northedge, son of Colonel Northedge before the Colonel was married, and a man who has not always behaved as a gentleman. According to the yarn of the Fifth-avenue Hotel, the man who came to New York and put up at the Fifth-avenue Hotel was a man who had been in the "reign of terror."

Some swindle suspected. "The Northedge at the Fifth-avenue Hotel is the man I think he is," said Mr. Duhanel to-night, "there is but one deduction that I can make, and that is that two swindlers have conspired in an elaborate scheme to victimize somebody."

The alleged Sir George has given it out as the Fifth-avenue Hotel, that he is a wife. The Northedges here say that Atwater, alias Northedge, is a married man. "He then went by the name of Atwater," Northedge, who organized the 99th New York volunteers. He came to Washington to set up a claim for the $7500 appropriation for the 99th New York volunteers.

When I first saw the story of this fellow claiming the title I wrote, on the basis of the two Northedge boys here, to investigate, to a friend of mine in Toronto, Attorney Wallace Nesbitt.

"Attorney Nesbitt replied that he had been unable to find any Queen's Counsel of that name in Toronto. The detective office, however, informed him that a law student by the name of Gilchrist had been convicted some three years before of cruelty to animals, since which time he had not been seen in Toronto."

A well-known English gentleman of this city informed me to-day that there is no baronetcy of Northedge in England. He not only spoke from his own knowledge, but quoted from "Burke's Peerage" to substantiate his claim.

The younger son, George R. Northedge, is a professional pugilist. His greatest feat was won in four rounds "up" with Jack Dempsey. He and the elder brother, who is quite skillful in the same line, are getting ready to-night to go to New York to interview "Sir George" at the Fifth-avenue Hotel. If he is all right the brothers will shake hands with him, but if he is Atwater he will have to protect that baronetcy with his fists.

NO INCREASE IN SALARIES.

Economy and Wrangling Were the Factors at the High School Board Meeting.

Yesterday evening the Collegiate Institute Board met to consider the estimates for the ensuing year. There were present Mr. R. L. Patterson, chairman; Messrs. H. McLean and O'Connor, Miss Carty, Messrs. Warring, Kennedy, W. C. Reddons, E. T. Malone, T. A. Hastings, F. P. Henry, Peter MacDonald, W. H. Parr, William Houston, Walter S. Lee.

A letter was received from Mr. James Lobb regarding his place in the board on account of change of residence. It was decided to refer the matter to the City Council. A communication was read from the Minister of Education. The School of Pedagogy term is to be increased one year and the Minister desires to come to an agreement with the committee of the year regarding the estimates for the coming year.

The session was mainly characterized by economy, several proposed advances in salaries were rejected. The report of the committee of the year regarding the estimates for the coming year.

Some variation was given by occasional dissent. Mr. T. A. Hastings, who was often heard in opposition through the meeting, made a vigorous speech on the same subject. The report of the Property Committee, holding that there should be a 10 per cent increase in salaries, was also discussed.

Burgess was appointed for the vacancy in the Jamieson-avenue School. The appointment will therefore be left over, likely till midsummer. Matters were then reviewed by a little time by Messrs. W. S. Lee and E. T. Malone were the principal speakers.

The estimates were proceeded with and every report presented and some found fault with, and some items referred to the Finance Committee of course the chief one, and there was a long discussion over it. The meeting broke up at 11.15, and the long-suffering members wended their homeward way.

THE BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS BY THE BOARD. Last Night. Hon. T. W. Anglin held the chair at the meeting of the Separate School Board. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Finance Committee's report recommending the payment of $1750 was adopted. The report of the Property Committee, holding that there should be a 10 per cent increase in salaries, was also discussed.

The Inspector's report showed that the total number of pupils registered during the month of February was 3857, and the average daily attendance was 3255. The report of the Property Committee, holding that there should be a 10 per cent increase in salaries, was also discussed.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 1.—The street railway strike was practically settled at midnight. The street railway strike was practically settled at midnight. The street railway strike was practically settled at midnight.

THE FOLLOWING BIRTHS ARE OFFERED THIS WEEK: Ladies' Sable Capes. Ladies' Beaver Capes. Ladies' Fur Coats. Ladies' Fur Goggles. Ladies' Fur Mitts. Ladies' Fur Scarves. Ladies' Fur Stoles. Ladies' Fur Wraps.

Any person wishing to buy really choice furs, or to have their furs made up, or to have their furs cleaned, or to have their furs stored, or to have their furs repaired, or to have their furs dyed, or to have their furs bleached, or to have their furs washed, or to have their furs pressed, or to have their furs steamed, or to have their furs ironed, or to have their furs brushed, or to have their furs combed, or to have their furs smoothed, or to have their furs finished, or to have their furs made up, or to have their furs cleaned, or to have their furs stored, or to have their furs repaired, or to have their furs dyed, or to have their furs bleached, or to have their furs washed, or to have their furs pressed, or to have their furs steamed, or to have their furs ironed, or to have their furs brushed, or to have their furs combed, or to have their furs smoothed, or to have their furs finished.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., March 1.—Fifteen of the men driven ashore from Trinity perished by exposure. Ten are still missing. The north coast is barricaded with ice, and steamers sent to search for the missing are unable to get along and grave doubts are felt of their being long alive.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Fruit Merchant, 713 Broadway, has a large stock of choice fruit. The fruit merchant has a large stock of choice fruit. The fruit merchant has a large stock of choice fruit.

LOS ANGELES, March 1.—The local police have arrested a man who had been in the "reign of terror." The local police have arrested a man who had been in the "reign of terror." The local police have arrested a man who had been in the "reign of terror."

THE WEATHER. Wednesday, March 2, 1892. Wind, S.W. by W. 10 to 15. Clouds, 3 to 5. Rain, 0.00. Snow, 0.00. Temperature, 35 to 45. Barometer, 30.00 to 30.10.

THE WEATHER. Wednesday, March 2, 1892. Wind, S.W. by W. 10 to 15. Clouds, 3 to 5. Rain, 0.00. Snow, 0.00. Temperature, 35 to 45. Barometer, 30.00 to 30.10.

FAILED TO TURN THE SWITCH.

THE HUBBER DISASTER OF '81 REPEATED IN MILWAUKEE.

The culpable negligence of a Switchman, Resulting in a Fatal Accident, in Which Many Workmen are Crushed to Death and Only One Injured—The Man Who Caused the Tragedy in Custody.

MILWAUKEE, March 1.—The fatal accident which occurred here at 4 o'clock this afternoon ran into and demolished the rear end of a train loaded with lumber. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision. The train was moving in the same direction as the train which struck it, and the switchman failed to turn the switch in time to prevent the collision.

SUFFERING RUSSIANS.

The Peasants Are Being Driven From Their Homes and the Carcasses of Wild Hens and the Carcasses of Horses.

LONDON, March 1.—An English special correspondent who is traveling in the Caucasus writes from Saratov that crimes of violence in the valley of the Volga are of frequent occurrence. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes and the carcasses of wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes. The correspondent says that wild hens and the carcasses of horses are being driven from their homes.

THE BUDGET FROM OTTAWA.

THE LONDON ELECTION DISPUTE IN THE HOUSE.

Hon. David Mills Gives Notice that He Will Move For the Production of the Original Voters' List—The Dominion Alliance and Prohibition—Looking For a Successor to Mr. James Ascham as Chairman of the Cause.

OTTAWA, March 1.—Hon. David Mills introduced the London dispute in the House today, moving that the House should be asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute. The House was asked to pass a resolution in relation to the London election dispute.

"TRAITOR, LIAR, AND STINKER."

THE TRAITOR OF THE EPITAPH HAS NOT YET BEEN THE DUST—AN M.P.'S VIGOROUS EXHIBITION.

VICTORIA, B.C., March 1.—In the Provincial Legislature today Kelle (member for West Kootenay), rising to a question of privilege, drew the attention of the House to the fact that at the last sitting of the House last Wednesday he had been grossly insulted within the precincts of the House by Frank Barnard (member of the Opposition) who had called him "a traitor, a liar, a stinker, and told him to go to hell."

Kelle said: "Had such language been used to me anywhere but inside this House either Barnard or I would have hit the dust then and there, but having regard for the dignity of Parliament, which was at the time in session, I refrained from laying hands on him."

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

Hon. John Robson said he performed the usual duties of a member of the House, and he had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so. He had not done so.

RIDGETOWN'S RACY ROMANCE.

HON. MRS. BENSON, AGED 61, CLAIMED TO BE A MARRIED WOMAN.

In Order to Secure Her Crippled Son From Want and Enable Him to Inherit Under Her Husband's Will She Becomes United to a Strange Youth of Twenty—The Marriage Ceremony For $10.

RIDGETOWN, Ont., March 1.—A paragraph has been going the rounds the past two or three days in respect to a young lady named Mrs. Benson—Mrs. Bentley, as the doctored spates have it—the 61-year-old widow of a former well-known hotelkeeper, then and there named William H. Plumb of Jackson, Mich.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

The marriage was the outcome of a clever scheme engineered by her, the attention of agent of the M.C.R. here, ex-mayor of the town, and of a few years ago was a young man named Charles H. Bentley, who had been twice married, and who had been twice married, and who had been twice married.

THE BROTHERS' STRIFE.

THE BROTHERS' STRIFE.

THE BROTHERS' STRIFE.

THE BROTHERS' STRIFE.

THE BROTHERS' STRIFE.

THE BROT