Horror of the Deep.

A WEEK ON A BOILING VESSEL, IN MID-OCEAN—BATHING FOR LIFE.
(From the New York Herald, 10th Inst.)
For nearly a week we were on a floating furnace, said Captain Charles Nichols yesterday. For nearly a week with the deck lurching and pitching under our feet, and never a chance of peeping below without suffocation. He sat in the cabin of the steamship Necker, just arrived from Bremen by way of Southampton, with one of the men who had suffered with him along side. These two, with five other men, had been taken on board in mid-ocean from a burning vessel which was not expected to hold together for two hours after she was abandoned.

DENTISTRY.

Dr. S. F. Whitman, Dentist,
WOULD respectfully inform his friends and the public in Annapolis County, that he is now at his office in

Two Wedding Days.

Everything had been duly and properly arranged for our wedding. The engagement of Miss Nell Bartley to Mr. Bertram Langley had been announced in the fashionable column of a leading society journal and the wedding day had arrived. Mr. Langley and Miss Bartley were both dressed in the most elegant manner. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Jones, and was attended by a large number of friends. The wedding was a most successful one, and the bride and groom were both very happy.
