London, December 4.—Confirmatory news of the Armenian massacre come daily to hand.

Dr. G. Thoumains, the well known Armenian, has just received a letter, written on September 29, from Todoveran, a village near Experoum, which also confirms the tales of butchery at Sassoun. The writer says: "How can I write of the horrors of our life for the days since the fourteenth? The wife of Rev. Mr. Sookiss, pastor of the Protestant community at Todoveran, was shot and died from the effects of her wounds. On September 25 a band of robbers commit-

Port George Pay Meeting

A very pleasant evening was spent at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Anderson of this place on Thursday last, the purpose of the gathering being to make up the annual payment due Rev. E. E. Locke, pastor of our church.

The several ladies attending had provided a bountiful repast, after the partaking of which, the meeting was called to order by Mr. C. A. Elliott. Mr. Joseph Fritz was appointed chairman, J. Edwin Slocomb secretary, and R. G. Anderson treasurer.

Everybody gave as the spirit prompted them to tok but a short time to reach $46.60.

Mr. Elliott then, in a very appropriate manner, addressed the meeting, thanking the people for their contributions, and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson for their kindness in opening their house. He particularly thanked those who were outside the pale of the church, and those who came from a distance to make their contribution to the church fund. Those belonging to the church he said, did but their duty; but he was par-SURROUNDED BY SOLDIERS, secretary, and R. G. Anderson treasurer.
