

April 26—Address by Dr. Stephen B. Leacock, at the School for the Blind, on "Imperial Unity."

May 15—Address at luncheon, Halifax Hotel, by Hon. Mr. Justice Russell on "The Foolishness of Preaching."

May 27—Address by Mr. J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, at the School for the Blind, on "Public Opinion and Public Life."

July 18—Address at luncheon, Halifax Hotel, by President R. A. Falconer, of the University of Toronto, on "The Place of the Maritime Provinces in the Life of the Dominion."

August 8—Address at luncheon, Halifax Hotel, by His Excellency the Governor-General, Rt. Hon. Earl Grey, on "Imperial Sacrifice for the good of the Empire."

August 23—Address by Rev. Dr. Shahan, of Washington, D. C., at the School for the Blind, on "Discipline and Opportunity."

October 25—Address by Rev. Dr. Magill, at the School for the Blind, on "Some Tendencies of Modern Democracy."

In the same connection it may be added that the Executive Committee put forth diligent efforts to induce