

time was lost in refusing the request of the Michigan Central, and cancelling their lease. And it is in such way as this that the historical societies may be of great use and help to the Government. I have little doubt that the enclosed protest, backed by an equally strong one from the U. E. Loyalists and the other Canadian clubs and historical societies will result favorably."

The resolution referred to was passed by a standing vote and amid much enthusiasm, on motion of Mrs. Forsyth Grant, and reads as follows :

"Resolved : That, whereas an "international monument is proposed to be erected in the public square at Quebec," we do hereby enter a protest against such act being allowed, and further appoint a committee to confer with the other historical societies in the matter."

The committee appointed by the above resolution has been formed. It is composed of the following ladies : M. Forsyth Grant, Elizabeth O'Brien, Sarah Mickle, Elizabeth T. Wyatt, Mary E. Cox and Mary Agnes FitzGibbon. They unanimously voted the following protest, which points out the inadequate hors de propos of erecting a monument to Montgomery at Quebec :

"That the said General Richard Montgomery, having served under Major-General Wolfe at the taking of Quebec, on September 13th, 1759, did later use the knowledge then obtained and while serving under the British flag, to lead an invading army into Canada, and fell, assaulting Quebec ; therefore, to permit the erection of an "international monument" or one of any character to do honor to the invader, would be at once an insult to the memory of the men who defended it, and to the feelings of their loyal descendants, and would also in the future confuse the minds of the children as to the duty they owe to their country. Also, it is
