

THE Presbyterian College Journal.

VOL. X — DECEMBER, 1890 — No. 2.

Our Graduates' Pulpit.

CHRIST THE SAVIOUR OF SINNERS.

A SERMON

BY REV. THOMAS BENNETT.

*This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.—
I Tim. i. 15.*

IT is not well to dwell continually on the first principles of the doctrine of Christ; yet every Christian is re-awakened and refreshed by going back occasionally to the first principles of our faith—the elementary truths of the gospel, as those of our text, “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.”

These primary truths are best suited to children—who do not want baby talk. God has made the Bible for them. It is wonderfully suited to all understandings, though it contains mysteries which the angels desire to look into. And to those who are unsaved no truth should be more precious than this primary one—“Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.”

I fear we do not preach sufficiently that men are sinners, and as such, their folly and wickedness and danger, and therefore men do not realize their need of the Divine Saviour, and the importance of the immediate acceptance of Him. Christians, while I preach, keep praying that the Holy Spirit may light up and bring home to every heart the old but ever new truths of this text. Allow me to say that whoever you may be, my