

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Notes.

Hymns for A. M., 215, 358, 369; For P. M., 176, 166, 205.

In place of the S. S. at 2.45 p. m., to-day, there will be an entertainment by the Mission Band. A pleasant and interesting programme has been prepared, and the parents and friends of the children are invited to enjoy it.

Christmas tree and entertainment on Monday Evening, at the Mission School, Agricola Street. There are about one hundred and fifty boys and girls there looking for Old Santa.

Christmas entertainment, Christmas tree and a real live Santa Claus, in the Vestry of this Church, Thursday Evening, the 26th, at 8 p. m. Let the parents of the children and all their friends come in with the little folks and have a good time. Let there be joy in all hearts.

Preparations are being made for a benefit entertainment to our worthy friend, Rev. W. E. Hall, to be given in the North Church, on Monday, December 30. Miss Hall, now at home, is a professional elocutionist, and will assist. Special musicians have already volunteered their service.

Christmas sermons next Lord's Day. Special music is being arranged for by the choir.

Applications for sittings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson. The seats are assigned, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.

THIS CHURCH IS SUPPORTED by the voluntary contributions of the people. Every member of this church is expected voluntarily to subscribe towards the expenses of the church whatever sum it is in his or her power to give. Envelopes are provided and can be had from the Financial Secretary. All bills, accounts and monies contributed, donated or raised by and for the church, are to be handed to C. R. Hoben, Fin. Sec'y.

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God."—Matt. 6: 33.
