FOR THE
KIDNEYS, LIVER & URINARY ORGANS
THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER.

There is only one way by which any disease can be cured, and that is by removing the cause—whatever it may be. The great medical authorities of the day declare that nearly every disease is caused by deranged kidneys or liver. To restore these therefore is the only way by which health can be secured. Here is the WARNER'S SAFE CURE has achieved its great reputation. It acts directly upon the kidneys and liver, and by placing them in a healthy condition drives disease and pain from the system. For all Kidney, Liver and Urinary troubles; for the distressing disorders of women; for Malaria, and physical troubles generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.

Words of the Wise.

CHRIST'S religion is summed up in His own person. Christ is Christianity.—Gladstone.

THE way to preserve the peace of the Church is to preserve the purity of it.—M. Henry.

THERE is nothing to which the soul bows down like goodness—plain, old-fashioned goodness.

WE should do everything we can for others, if only to dissipate the thought of what they omit to do for us.

SORROWS humanize our race;
Tears are the showers that fertilize this world.

MORE praise, more thankfulness of spirit, would promote our peace not more than it would our strength and usefulness.

IN every man there is a loneliness, an inner chamber of peculiar life, into which God only can enter.—G. Macdonald.

Pray, pray, pray—there is no help but prayer;

A breath that fleets beyond this iron world, And touches Him who made it.—Tennyson.

AS soon as we divorce love from the occupations of life, we find that labour degenerates into drudgery.—Whipple.

WITH open eyes that look on God,

My daily journey I pursue;

I do not dread His lifted rod;

Why should I fear what Love can do?

THOSE who fear God need not fear man. The heart that rests secure in a sense of the divine approval is not disturbed by every passing breeze of disapproval or criticism.

THE warm sunshine and the gentle zephyr may melt the glacier which has bid defiance to the howling tempest; so the voice of kindness will touch the heart which no severity could subdue.—Herder.

LET us beware of losing our enthusiasms. Let us ever glory in something, and strive to retain our admiration for all that would ennoble, and our interest in all that would enrich and beautify our life.—Phillips Brooks.

IF you want knowledge, you must toil for it; if food you must toil for it; and if pleasure, you must toil for it. Toil is the law. Pleasure comes through toil, and not by self-indulgence and indolence. When one gets to love work his life is a happy one.—Ruskin.

HOPE is the ruddy morning ray of joy, recollection is its golden tinge; but the latter is wont to sink down amid the dews and dusky shades of twilight, and the bright blue day which the former promises breaks indeed, but in another world, and with another sun.—Richter.

I WAS once in a large company where very severe things were spoken of an absent gentleman, when a person seasonably observed that though the Lord was pleased to effect conversion and edification by a variety of means, he had never known anybody convinced of error by what was said behind his back.—John Newton.

What a means of grace it would be for every Church member to be doing daily, in person and to the extent of his or her ability, what such member recognizes as the present and urgent duty of the whole Church! Organized effort is a necessity in some departments of work; but obedience to a sense of individual responsibility is a still larger necessity.

THERE is a set of people whom I cannot bear—the plinks of fashionable propriety—whose very word is precise, and whose every movement is unexceptionable, but who, though versed in all the categories of polite behaviour, have not a particle of soul or of cordiality about them. We allow that their manners may be abundantly correct. There may be elegance in every gesture, and gracefulness in every posture, not a smile out of place, and not a step that would not bear the measurement of the severest scrutiny. This is all very fine; but what I want is the heart and gaiety of social intercourse, the frankness that spreads ease and animation around it, the eye that speaks affability to all, that chases timidity from every bosom, and tells every man in the company to be confident and happy.—Dr. Chalmers.

If your lungs are almost wasted by consumption Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure you, yet as a remedy for severe cases of curable bronchitis, throat, and lung troubles it is unsurpassed. Send two stamps for Dr. Pierce's pamphlet treatise on Consumption and kindred affections. Address World's Dispensary, Medicine Association, Buffalo, N.Y.

M. F. P. BOILEAU, Ottawa, says: "I was radically cured of piles, from which I had suffered for over two months, by the use of Dr. Electric Oil. I used it both internally and externally, taking it in small doses before meals and after bed. In one week I was cured, and have not had a trouble since. I believe it saved my life."
