MESSRS.

ADAM, STEVENSON & CO.

Beg to announce to their customers, correspondents, and the public, that they have this day disposed of their Retail business in all its departments, to Messrs.

Who have been for some time in charge of this branch, and who will, in future, carry on this—the Retail Department, of their

BOOK AND STATIONERY BUSINESS,

IN ITS ENTIRETY.

In withdrawing from the Retail Trade, and severing connection with their many friends and correspondents, they beg to express their grateful thanks for the favors they have, for many years, been the recipients of ; and they would desire, for their successors, whom they warmly commend, a continuance of the patronage which has been so generously bestowed on them.

In reference to the above announcement of the purchase of the Retail business of Messrs. A., S. & Co., we desire to state that the business will be carried on by us as efficiently as close application, considerable experience, and the best facilities can effect ; and with every desire to maintain the high character earned for the business by our predecessors, and to promote and extend its usefulness and importance among the community.
