

The Royal Tour

THE present "Royal Number" of THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE will be followed by a number the distinguishing feature of which will be a set of illustrations showing the chief events of the Royal Tour. These illustrations will be the most exclusive and the best to appear in a Canadian periodical. They will be numerous and printed in the style which has made THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE the leader among Canadian illustrated journals.

The Duke; a Character Sketch, by J. T. Clark of the Toronto Star, will be a bright picture of His Royal Highness, drawn by a journalist who has had an excellent opportunity of observing the Man as distinguished from the Duke.

Touring a Continent, will be an impressionistic picture of the Royal Tour, by Norman Patterson—a writer who has himself visited every city in Canada and knows the spirit of the people who are doing homage to the Royal Couple who are now Canada's guests.

The Cricket Season of 1901, by John E. Hall, Hon. Sec. Canadian Cricket Association, will give a summary of the matches played during the season, and indicate the notable features of the year. This article will be generously illustrated with special photographs.

The Rowing Season of 1901, by Captain R. K. Barker, Manager of the Argonauts, will be decidedly interesting to sportsmen of all kinds. This will also be fully illustrated.

The Yachting Season of 1901, by F. J. Campbell, Secretary of the Lake Yacht Racing Association, will be a third sporting article. It will contain historical accounts of the Seawanhaka International Challenge Cup Races and the Canada Cup Races, as well as other interesting material. This also will be illustrated with numerous photographs.

When Prince Albert and Edmonton are connected by Railway will be a suggestive article dealing with railway and settlement progress in the Territories. The author is an Edmonton journalist.
