SIR ADOLPHE P. CARON.

THIS eminent statesman is one of the ornaments of Canadian Knighthood. He received the honor as an expression of Her Majesty's appreciation of his distinguished services in suppressing a rebellion of the North-West half-breeds, who had been coaxed into insurrection by the masterly inactivity of the Government in which Sir Adolphe was Minister of Militia. Her Majesty was doubtless under the impression that the Minister, on the first call to arms, had mounted a buffalo or reindeer and rushed into the thickest of the fight. This was an error, however. He did nothing in particular, and did it very well. Sir Adolphe is now Postmaster General, it having been decided that after all he was not blood-thirsty enough for the Militia Department. He is more prominent at this moment, however, as the victim of certain boodling charges brought before Parliament by Mr. J. D. Edgar. In this matter Mr. Edgar appears to have been humbugged by somebody, as Sir Adolphe has told the House that there is not a word of truth in the allegations.

F. SIMPSON, Esq., Fruit Merchant, 713 Yonge St., says:—"I was a sufferer from rheumatism. My physician recommended St. Leon Water, it has cured me. I have recommended it to several of my friends, it has cured them. I would not be without it." Send in your orders. St. Leon is all-powerful to remove those life-destroying poisons. No such word as fail in our dictionary.
