

C. Allocation of seats

1. The allocation of seats could be made on the following basis:
 - Each of the five regional groups will be allotted (3?) seats; these will be filled by members elected by the Conference of the States Parties on the proposals by the regional groups.
 - The remaining seats (10?) will be filled (on proposal by the Executive Council,) in accordance with paragraph B.2 (by members elected by the Conference of the States Parties).
2. A number of concrete formulae could be derived from A., B. and C.1 1/

1/ The following concrete formulae have been discussed:

(a) Allocation of 5 seats per regional group of the United Nations, taking into account the industrial and political considerations within each region.

(b) Allocation of seats to the 5 permanent members of the United Nations Security Council, with the remaining seats apportioned equally among the 5 regional groups.

(c) Allocation of 3 seats per regional group and 10 seats on the basis of industrial criterion to be determined.

(d) Allocation of 5 seats to the 5 most industrially advanced States Parties in the world; allocation of one seat each to the industrially most advanced States Parties in the regions not covered by the first category; and allocation of the remaining seats to the 5 regional groups, with 4 seats for the 2 groups not covered by the second category.

(e) Allocation of 3 seats per regional group and 10 seats on the basis of the political factor to be determined.

(f) Allocation of 3 seats per regional group; and 10 seats on the basis of industrial criteria to be determined, with at least 3 of the latter being allotted to Latin America/Africa/Asia.

(g) Allocation of 3 seats per regional group; allocation of 5 seats to the industrially most advanced States Parties; allocation of 5 seats taking into account the political factor following a 2-1-1-1 pattern.

(h) (10?) seats on proposal by the Executive Council "amongst States Members whose presence in the Executive Council would be beneficial for the good functioning of the Convention"; allocation of 4 seats per regional group of which 2 seats to the industrially most advanced States Parties of each group not included in the former category.

(i) Allocation of seats on the basis of the requirement of regional spread and the weight to be allotted to a country in relation to its industrial importance.
