

beforehand. The concert organizations of both sides will, if required, arrange previews to determine the acceptability of the proposed groups. In case performances of any of the proposed groups cannot take place, other groups will be proposed in their place. The sides also agree to encourage additional guest performances. The terms of these performances will be the subject of negotiations and will be stipulated in separate contracts between Gosconcert of the USSR of other appropriate organizations of the USSR and the Touring Office of the Canada Council or Canadian impresarios, who mainly work in Canada, unless other agreement between Gosconcert of the USSR and the Touring Office of the Canada Council is reached beforehand.

With the view of fulfilling the above mentioned exchanges, the sides agree that all payments will be made in Soviet roubles and Canadian dollars in accordance with the signed contracts. The sides consider all their artistic groups and participants in the exchanges to be official.

2. The sides will facilitate the participation of their musicians in international competitions and of other cultural workers in international countries during the validity of the programme.
