

2. When a Party or one of its Regulatory Authorities has reasons to believe that a product from the other Party, covered under a Sectoral Annex, may compromise the health or safety of persons in its territory, or otherwise fails to satisfy a requirement of the applicable Sectoral Annex, the Party in the receiving territory retains all powers under its applicable domestic law to take all appropriate and immediate measures to withdraw such products from the market, prohibit their placement on the market, restrict their free movement, or initiate a product recall. The Regulatory Authority in whose territory the action has been taken shall inform its counterparts and the Joint Committee within fifteen days of taking such action, giving its reasons.

3. The Parties agree that border inspections and checks of products certified to the importing Party's requirements shall be completed as expeditiously as possible. With regard to any inspections related to internal movement within their respective territories, the Parties agree that these shall be completed in a manner no less favourable than for like domestic goods.

ARTICLE XV

MARKET ACCESS

1. Each Party's obligation to accord mutual recognition within the terms of a Sectoral Annex to this Agreement is conditional upon the other Party continuing:

(a) to provide access to its market for products that, having been subjected to conformity assessment procedures, can be demonstrated to meet the applicable technical requirements; and
