meanor, purporting to be signed by the Clerk of the Court or other a perjury was officer having the custody of the records of the Court whereat the committed. indictment was tried, or among which such indictment has been filed, or by the deputy of such clerk or other officer, shall, upon trial of an 5 indictment for perjury or subornation of perjury, be sufficient evidence of the trial of such indictment for felony or misdemeanor, without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed the same.

10. This Act shall commence and take effect on the first day of ment of Act.

10 , one thousand eight hundred and