

Act, or was entitled to a pension under any of Parts I to III of the former Act by virtue of having served in the forces, may, within one year after the coming into force of this Act, elect to become a contributor under this Act.

Idem.

(3) An election under subsection (2) made by a person who, at the time of the making of the election, was a person appointed or enrolled as an officer of the forces temporarily or for a fixed term is void unless, in the case of a person who became so appointed or enrolled before the coming into force of this Act, he was a man of the forces immediately before he became so appointed or enrolled, or unless at the time he became so appointed or enrolled he was entitled to a pension under any of Parts I to III of the former Act by virtue of having served in the forces.

Service under Parts I to III of former Act.

(4) An elective contributor is entitled to count as pensionable service for the purposes of this Act any period of service that, at the time of making the election, he was entitled under Part I, II or III of the former Act to count for pension purposes, and upon the making of that election he shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have elected to pay for that service.

Application of ss. (3) of s. 7.

(5) Subsection (3) of section 7 does not apply in respect of any election deemed by subsection (4) to have been made by an elective contributor.

Amount required to be paid.

(6) The amount required to be paid by an elective contributor for any period of service described in subsection (4) is an amount equal to

(a) the total amount that he would have been required to contribute had he, during that period, been required to contribute in the manner and at the rate set forth in subsection (1) of section 4, in respect of pay equal to the pay authorized to be paid to him during that period, without interest;

minus

(b) the total amount of the contributions made by him under Part I, II or III of the former Act in respect of that service.

Pay deemed to have been received.

(7) For the purposes of this Act, the pay deemed to have been received by an elective contributor during any period of service described in subsection (4) is pay at a rate equal to the rate of pay authorized to be paid to him during that period.

Applicable rate in respect of certain service.

(8) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (6), the rate set forth in subsection (1) of section 4, in respect of any portion of the period specified in that paragraph that is before the 1st day of October, 1946, shall be deemed to be five per cent.

Surrender of benefits under former Act.

(9) Upon the making of any election under subsection (2), an elective contributor ceases to be entitled to any benefit under Part I, II or III of the former Act, and there
