GREAT LAKES SCIENCE ADVISORY BOARD

Question No. 4,876—Mr. Mazankowski:

1. Is there a Great Lakes Science Advisory Board under the International Joint Commission and, if so (a) who are the members (b) what is the (i) background or expertise (ii) term of appointment of each member (c) what remuneration, such as salary or travel expenses, do the members receive and, for the length of each appointment to date, what amount did each member receive (d) what other funding, if any, is provided by the Government?

2. (a) What are the terms of reference of the Board (b) what matters did it consider in the fiscal year 1982-83 (c) how often did it meet and how often is it required to meet (d) what reports and/or recommendations did the Board publish in the fiscal year 1982-83?

Hon. Allan J. MacEachen (Deputy Prime Minister and Secretary of State for External Affairs): 1. Yes. The Great Lakes Science Advisory Board (known as the Research Advisory Board until November, 1978) is made up of an equal number of American and Canadian members. Presently there are two vacancies on the U.S. side. (a) (b) (i) (ii) See list below. (c) Salaries of Board members are not paid by the Board but are the responsibility of their respective employers.

Travel expenses of those members of the Board who are employees of federal, provincial or state governments are paid by their respective employers. Travel expenses for other members of the Board are paid by the Board.
