Business Suits

WE were the first good tailor shop to specialize on a neat, business-like suit at $25.

We have the styles, the varieties, the values.

And we believe we tailor more of these $25 suits than any other half dozen tailor shops in town.

For you men, who can afford to pay what you please, you men who, because of business or social environs, want to wear the best that human minds can design, and human hands tailor.

Finest of imported woolens, woven from selected long fleece, showing the superb colorings, that it is quite impossible to reproduce in the cheaper fabrics.

Made strictly to your measure at $25.

WE ARE PROMISING ALL ORDERS READY FOR EASTER, AND IT'S TIME NOW FOR YOU TO ORDER.

Best aggregate score in team, double and single events—First, $25; second, $15; third, $10.

The five-men open event carries the Tuckett trophy, emblematic of the Alberta champlonship, and gold medals held by the Calgary Callies. The event for teams in towns of less than 8000 population includes the Lethbridge trophy, held by the Barons.

"There are 54 towns with howling alleys in the Province of Alberta," President Simonton said, "and we should have at least 150 visiting bowlers. Preparations are being made to give the devotees of the mineralite a good time, in addition to putting up the real article in the way of bowling. The Olympic League will enter five teams and the three newspapers and business houses here will put on at least double that number. Entries close March 14.

Riverside Boxers Start Training. The boxers that are going to represent the Riverside Athletic Club at the coming championships started their training in earnest at the club rooms, 58 Strange street, last night, and from present indication it looks as if they will have two or three entries in each class, except the heavyweight. If any ambitious amateur wants to take up the amateur boxing game and especially a heavyweight they will be cordially welcome at the club's quarters, where there is an up to date boxing gym, shower baths, hot and cold water; also the club's trainer. Billy Tinley, and Jimmy Green, to teach and help them in every way. Strangers are welcome to see the boys work out on Thursday night.
