Charite Cellins of Dundas is dead. He was a fluent speaker and a big factor in municipal polities in Wentworth County, reeve of the town and a member of the county council at the time of his death. That was his hobby after quitting baseball, the he was a skilful and successful curier and bowler. Cld-time ball players were frequently adorned with the heavy mustachies, but Chub is the only well-known ball tosser in the last 25 years who went thru a hig portion of a seeson with a full beard. Winning a game for Hamilton wearing a stubby growth he vowed that he would not shave till the Hams lost a game, and as they kept up the winning streak a month or more the star second baseman soon sported a luxuriant growth. Chub was always manager and captain, and never failed to fight for his point.
