OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL—This well conducted ublication we are glad to learn, has proved eminently successful. Its contents must prove of great value to the profession in Canada, and will prove intreasting in the United States—American Radiony Review, September 20th,

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOERNAL -This useful publication for September is before us. We heartly recommend it as a very useful Journal, not only to members of the legal profession, but also to Magnetrates, Barlnot only to members of the legal profession, but also to Maghirates, Bailis, &c, and in fact every person who usibes to keep himself posted in law matters. It has been recommended not only by the highest legal authorities in this Province, but also in the United States and Lingland. The present number is replete with useful information—Willand Reporter, September 20th, 1800

UPPLE CANADA LAW JOURNAL—We have received the April number of this excellent publication, which is a credit to the publishers and the Province Among a great variety of articles of interest, we especially note two, one on a series on the Constitutional History of Canada, the other upon a decision declaring the right of persons not parties to suits to search the books of the Clerks of Courts for judgments. The question arose out of a request of the Secretary of the Mercantile Protection Association —Montreal Guzette, April, 25th.

The Upper Canada Law Journal, for May. Messus Maclear & Co, King Street, Toronto—In addition to interesting reports of cases recently tried in the several Law Courts, and a variety of other important matter, the number contains well-written original articles on Municipal Law Reform, responsibilities and duties of School Trustees and Teachers; and a continuation of a Historical Setch of the Constitution, Laws and Legal Tribunals of Canada.—Thorold Guzzale, May 19th, 1859.

UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL—The March number of this very useful and interesting Journal has been received. We think that the articles and interesting Journal has been received. We think that the articles found in its pages are equal in ability to any found in kindred periodicals either in England or America. Messrs Ardagh & Harrison deserve the greatest credit for the manner in which the editorial work is performed. We hope their enterprise may be as profitable as it is creditable.—Hastings Chromele. Man. 10th 1850. Chromele, May, 10th 1859.

The Upper Canada Law Journal. Maclear & Co., Toronto. This well conducted publication, we are glad to learn, has proved eminently successful. Its contents must prove of great value to the Profession in Canada, and will prove interesting in the United States.—Legal Intelligen-cer, Philadelphia, August 6, 1858.

Upper Canada Law Journal - We have received the first number of typer Canada Law Journal—We have received the first number of the hith volume of this highly useful Journal, published by Maclear & Co. of Toronto, and edited by the talented Robert A. Harrison, Esq., BCL author of the Common Law Procedure Act, which has obtained classification along with the celebrated compilers of England and is preferred by the professionals at home to all others.

There is no magistrate, municipal officer, or private gentlemen, whose profession or education wishes the law to be well administered, should be without it. There are knotty points defined with a simplicity that the most ordinary minds can understand, and the literary gentleman will find in its pages, a history of the constitution and laws of Canada, from the assumption of British authority. Subscription, $4 00 a year, and for the amount of labour and crudition bestowed upon it, it is worth double the amount - Victoria Herald, January 19, 1859 and HARRISON.

The Live Journal of Upper Cunada for January. By Mesars. Ardagu and Harrison. Marker & Co., Toronto, $4 to a year cash.

This is one of the best and most successful publications of the day in Annals, and its success prompts the cities to greater exertion. For instance they promise during the present volume to devote a larger portion of their mitenton to Municipal Law, at the same time not negaciting the interests of their general subgenders—British Wing, January 18, 1859.

The Oper Canada Law Journal, for January. Maclear & Co , King Street East, Toronto.

This is the first number of the Fifth Volume; and the publishers announce that the terms on which the paper has been furnished to subscribers, will remain unchanged,—viz. $4.00 per annum, if paid before the issue of the March number, and $5.00 if afterwards. Of the unlity of too issue of the march number, and go to it afterwards. Of the utility of the Law Joarnal, and the ability with which it is conducted, ample testiming has been afforded by the Bar and the Press of this Province; so it is unnecessary for us to say much in the way of urging its claims upon the liberal patronage of the Canadain public — Thorald Gazette, January 27, 1859.
The Upper Canada Law Journal and Local Courts' Gazette, is the name of an excellent mentaly publication, from the establishment of Macler & Co. Toronto—It is conducted by W. D. Ardagh, and R. A. Harrison, B. C. L. Barrister at Law—Price $4 per annum.—Oshawa Undicator, between 15th, 1888.

LAW JOURNAL, for November has arrived, and we have with pleasure its invaluable contents. In our humble opinion, the publication of this Journal is an inestimable boon to the legal profession. We are not aware of the extent of its circulation in Brantford, it should be taken, however of the extent of its circulation in Brantford, it should be taken, nowever by every member of the Bar, in town, as well every Majistrate and Municipal Officer. Nor would politicians find it unprofitable, to pursue its highly instructive pages. This journal is admitted by Trans Atlantic writers to be the most ably conducted Journal of the prof. solo in America. The Publishers have our sincere thanks for the present number—

Event Head Nov. 10th 1885. Brant Herald, Nov. 16th , 1859.

The Low Journal is beautifully printed on excellent paper, and, in deed equals in its typegraphical appearance, the legal record published in the metropolis of the United Kingdom 34 a year is a very inconsiderable sum for so much valuable information as the Law Journal conains -Post Hope Atlas.

UPPER CANADA LAW JOIENAL, Mackar & Co., Toronto, January — We have so frequently spoken in the highest terms of the ments of the above periodical, that it is scarcely necessary for us to do anything more than a knowledge the receipt of the last number. It is almost as essential to Municipal officers and Magistrates as it is to Lawyers.—Stratford Examples 4th Magistrates 4 sner, 4th May, 1859

The Upper Cavada Law Journal for March By W. D. Ardagh and Robt. A. Harrison, Barristers at Law. Maclear & to, Toronto. $4 a year cash - Above we have joined together for a single notice, the most useful periodical that any country can produce, and happy are we to add, that it appears to be well and deservedly patronised. We have so repeatedly alluded to its merits, that the reader will readily excuss any longer make mention - Whig, May, 180: 1859.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL, and Local Courts Gazette.

The CPPAR CAMAR LAW JOURNAL, and Local Guerts Gazette.

The August number of this sterling publication has been at hand several days. It opens with a well written original paper on "Law, Equity and Justice," which considers the questions so frequently asked by those who have been, as they think, in timized in a legal controversy.—" Is Law not Equity? Is Equity not Law?" Liability of Corporations, and Liability of Steamboat Proprietors, are next in order, and will be found worth a careful persual. A "listerical Sects in othe Constitution, Laws and Legal Tribunals of Canada," is continued from the July number, it is compiled with care, and should be read by every young Canadian.

The correspondence department is seen full this month. There are is complied with Care, and should be read by every young Canadian. The correspondence department is very full this month. There are letters from several Division Court Clerks, asking the opinions of the kilters on politic of law with which it is important every clerk should be familiar. There are communications too from Justices of the Peace, asking information upon a great variety of subjects. All questions are answered by the Editors, and a glance at this department must be sufficient to satisfy every Clerk, Justice of the Peace, Buildfor Constable that in no way can they invest $4$ with so much advantage to themselves, as in paying that amount as a year  subscription to the Law Journal. The report of the case, "Regina v. Cummings," by Robert A. Harrison, Esq., decided in the Court of Error and Appeal, is very tuil, and of course will receive the careful attention of the profession.

The Reports of Law Courts add greatly to the value of the publication. ly to the value of the publication.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL, &C.

We are indebted to the publishers of this interesting law periodical for the numbers till this sale of the present volume, (Vol. 4.) commencing with January last. Its pages have been looked over by its with much interest. It is the only legal periodical published in Upper Canada, and is conducted with great ability. Each number contains elaborate original articles on professional subjects, mainly of importance to the bar of Canada, but also entertaining to that of the United States—communications on mosted points and replies thereto, serial instructions to magistrates and other officers—and numerous decisions of the Division and other Courts of Canada. We welcome it as an excellent exchange.—The Piusburgh Legal Journal, Sept. 4th, 1858.

THE LAW JUTENAL, for February, has been lying on our table for some time. As usual, it is full of valuable information. We are glad to find that the circulation of this very ably conducted publication is on the in-crease—that it is now found in every Barrister's office of note, in the hands of Division Court Clerks, Sheriffs and Bariffs - Hope Guule, March

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL for July. Maclear & Co., Toronto. THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOHNAL for July. Sactest & Co., Toronto. $4 a year.—To this useful publication the public are indebted for the only reliable law intelligence. For instance, after all the Toronton emspasers havegiven a garried account of the legal proceedings in the case of Moese R. Cumnings, out comes the Law Journal and speaks the truth, viz: that the Court of App all has ordered a new Trial, the prisoner remaining in custody.—British Whig, July 0, 1888.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL Toronto: Maclear & Co—The July number of this valuable journal has reached us. As it is the only publication of the kind in the Province, it ought to have an extensive circuit tom, and should be in the hands of all business as well as professions men. The price of subscription is four dollars a year in advance—Spectage, July 1858. tater, July 7, 1858

Typer (Unada Law Jearnal.—This highly interesting and useful journal for June has been received. It contains a test amount of information. The articles on "The work of Legislation," "Law Reforms of the Session," "Historical Sketch of the Constitution, Laws and Legal Tribinals of Canada," are well worthy of a carcial persual. This work should be found in the office of every mirrichant and trader in the Province, being, in our opinion of quite as much use to the merchant as the lawyer.—Hamilton Spectator.—June 8, 1858,

I' C Law Journal, August, 1859. Toronto Maclear & Co.
This valuable law serial still maintains its high position—We hope its circulation is increasing. Every Magistrateshould patronize it. We are happy to learn from the number before us that Mr. Harrison's "Common Law Procedure Acta" is highly spoken of by the English Jurist, a legal authority of considerable weight. He says it is "almost as useful to the English as to the Canadian Lawyer, and is not only the most recent, but by far the most complete edition which we (Jurist) have seen of these important acts of parliament."—Colourg Star, August 11th, 1858.

Tiper Canada Law Journal.—The August number of the lipper Canada Law Journal and Local Courts Gazette, has just come to hand. Like its predecessors, it maintains its high standing as a perceited which should be studied by every Upper Canadian Law Student, and "arrefully read, and referred to, by every intelligent Canadian who would become acquainted with the laws of his adopted country, and see how these laws are administered in her courts of Justice—Newlord Examiner, August 196, 1878. 1206, 1808
