"Many requests from the readers of his book on 'The Selkirk Settlers in Real Life' have led the author, the Rev. R. G. MacBeth, to continue the history down to recent date in another volume. Mr. MacBeth is a native of the country, and belongs to a connection that came into close contact with the principal men and incidents of the earlier days, and he himself as a student, lawyer, soldier and clergyman, is qualified to tell vividly the story of Manitoba's political as well as religious and educational progress.—Winnipeg Free Press."

THE STANDARD BEARER

AN HISTORICAL ROMANCE

By S. R. CROCKETT,

Author of "The Raiders," "The Grey Man," "Lochinvar," etc.

Paper, 75c. Cloth, $1.25.

"Rarely has the author drawn more truly from life than in this case, in which the melody of love mingles with harsh notes of the Scottish character.

"Mr. Crockett stands on ground that he has made his own in this romance of the Scottish Covenanters.

"The story opens in 1685, 'the terrible year,' with a vivid picture of the pursuit of Covenanters by the dragoons. The hero, who becomes a Covenanting minister, sees many strange and stirring adventures. The charming love story which runs through the book is varied by much excellent fighting and many picturesque incidents. THE STANDARD BEARER is likely to be ranked by readers with Mr. Crockett's most successful work."—Presbyterian Review.
