

wife." . . . Honourable and generous, brave but impulsive, a bitter enemy yet a devoted friend.

During the winter of 1831-32, one Wm. Sargint got out timber for a frame building in the town, and next spring he erected

R. C. SEPARATE SCHOOL, GRANGE STREET.

it on the present site of Messrs. Workman's hardware store. This was the first frame building in the County of Perth, and Sar-