

persons, and each member, on admission, shall deposit into the hands of the Clerk, one dollar, as a fund to the company; they shall meet on the first Wednesday of February, May, August and November, annually, at such public house as the President for the time being shall appoint :—in the months of November and February at seven o'clock in the evening, and in the months of May and August at eight o'clock in the evening, and such member as shall be absent at roll calling, which shall take place at the time herein fixed for meeting, shall pay a fine of one shilling and three pence, and if absent the whole evening, unless prevented by sickness, or being out of town, two shillings and sixpence; and any member quitting a quarterly meeting, before the reckoning is settled, without leave from the President, shall pay a fine of half a dollar.

IV.

Each Member shall, within one month after his admission into this company, furnish himself with two good leather buckets, strong and well made, to contain nearly three gallons of water, with a proper and substantial handle: and also two bags of one yard and three quarters in length, made of ravens duck, each having strings fixed, in order to close them when filled; the buckets and bags marked with the owner's name at length; and underneath, upon the buckets, two clasped hands, handsomely painted, to designate them as the property of the members of this company; also, with one basket, two and an half feet long, by one and an half feet wide, marked upon the side H. H. The