We trust the Toronto Railway Company will see the propriety of maintaining a election. All the people expect from the Railway Company is a fair and honest enforcement of the agreement between the city and the company. Such an enforcement is not possible if the company elects the Mayor. The present incumbent of the mayoralty chair is the nominee of the Toronto Railway Company and there is a mayoralty chair is the nominee of the Toronto Railway Company, and there is a general impression abroad that the city officials, as a rule, favor the company as against the city when the interests of the two do not run parallel. The Mayor of Toronto must be tied up in no shape or form to the Toronto Railway Company. He must be perfectly neutral, doing justice to the company, and yet seeing that the people are protected in their rights. He was in the Grand Central Hotel at the very same time that Premier Ross and Donald Machine that the was reported by the judges in the North Waterloo election trial, and that was told by the judges that they would not be live him on oath. What the people would like to know is why this man Lewis is at large. If the law were allowed to take its course, as it is in cases of larceny, Lewis would have been tried and convieted long ago. If the Attorney General administered the criminal law as he is in duty-bound to administer it, Lewis would not now be at large. He would probably be safely housed in the Central Prison or one of the county jalls. This is the class of men for whom. The Globe demands perfect freedom and liberty to commit the crimes for which they have already been reported. If the Government will not prosecute the gang the people would be justified in using force to keep them out of West Eiglin or any other constituency in which they have the effontery to show their faces.

BATTLE OF MODDER RIVER

Was the Most Steady Fire in the Annals of the British Army-

Our troops Simply Mowed Down.
Our troops had no cover whatever, and were simply mowed down. It seemed impossible to live through the terrible fire, but the brave fellows did not retreat an inch. The Boer fire was horribly accurate, and they must have numbered at least 10.000. The Scots Guards advanced 600 yards before they were fired on. Then they had to lie down to escape the deadly fusiade, which lasted without intermission throughout the day. The Highlanders made several attempts to force a passage of the river, but they were exposed to such a murderous emiliading fire that they had to retire after they had suffered terribly. Subsequently a party of the Guards got over and held their own for hours against a vastly superior force.

The result is health.
Mr. Lever writes:

Mr. Lever writes:

"I was afflicted with what the doctors called nervous indigestion. Took medicine from my family physician to no avail. I thought myself incurable as I suffered so much with pain under my ribs and an empty feeling in my stomach. I was getting very nervous and suffered a great deal mentally, thinking that death would soon claim me. I was irritable and impatient and greatly reduced in flesh. I could scarcely eat anything that would not produce a bad feeling in my stomach. I wrote Dr. Pierce. He prescribed his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets' and gave me some simple hygienic rules. I am well again. I believe the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets' will cure any case of indigestion, torpid liver, or chronic cold."

Many Heroic Deeds.

Among the many heroic deeds one of the most conspicuous was that of Lieut.-Col, Codrington of the Coldstream Guards, Captain Selipein of the Queensland contingent and a dozen members of the Coldstream Guards, who jumped into the river and swam nearly to the other side in the face of a steady fire. They were forced to retire, however, and, joining hands, swam back, two of their number being nearly drowned in the return. Boers Shelled the Hospital.

It also appears that General Schalk, the burgher commanding the Boers, sent a message, suggesting that all the wounded be sent to a neutral camp, and that General White peremptorily refused, whereupon the Beers deliberately shelled the hospital. All accounts agree that the Boers' shells were much more damaging than previously. A number of civilians and police were killed or wounded, while the Liverpool and Gloucester Battallons lost 11 men Nov. 24. The siege of Ladysmith was then growing stronger. The Boers were estimated to number from 10,000 to 15,000 men. The health of the British garr'son was good. The Boer Yorce at Colenso is estimated to be 15,000 men, with 15 guns. YOUNG LIBERALS SMOKE.

An Enjoyable Evening Spent in St. George's Hall-Speeches Delivered. A smoking concert was held in St.

George's Hall last night under the auspices of the Young Liberal Club, which was enjoyed by several hundred members and their friends. President J. G. Ramsden was in the chair and made a brief address. Seated beside him were Messrs, W. B. Rogers, J. S. Willison, N. W. Rowell and Joseph Haycock, ex-M.L.A.

The speech made by Mr. Haycock deplored the election corruptions, but the speaker admired Mr. Donald Macnish for his action in resigning his seat when he found out what had taken place. In his opinion, the Patron movement had been instrumental in strengthening, independence of thought among all classes.

Mr. Willison was pleased that a man like Mr. Haycock, after his experience as an independent, could work with the Liberal party. Men with independent views were always welcome to the Liberal ranks. He hoped the Government would be successful in the four bye-elections in Ontario, as they deserved to win. In dealing with the Manitoba fight, he hoped the Greenway Government would be sustained. In conclusion, he regretted Mr. Bertram's illness and hoped for his early recovery.

Mr. Rowell accused the Conservatives of procuring part of the Liberal policy during the past few days. He reviewed the Government's administration of public affairs and was of the opinion that the Liberals had redeemed their pledges, with the exception of those which were sidetracked by the Senate.

Mr. Rogers, in a brief address, advocated
