Local Market

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son. London, Friday, Oct. 9. There were only one or two loads of oats, about the same of wheat, seven or eight of hay, and four loads of straw on the market today. The prices paid were the same as yesterday, with the one exception of oats, a poor lot of which sold at 50c, would not have brought over 45c had it not been for the scarcity. Wheat sold at $1 12.

FOOTBALL.

LONDON VS. PETROLEA.

Tomorrow afternoon the citizens of London will have the opportunity of encouraging good manly sport, as put up by the boys of the city. Petrolea sends two Rugby football teams to do battle with the London seniors and juniors. The boys, under Harry Pope, have been putting in hard practice every night this week, and have now reached a high stage of perfection.

The teams have every confidence of giving a good account of themselves, FOOTBALL. Receipts—

It was an action brought by the Guelph and Ontario Investment Society to recover $362 50, amount of rent reserved in a iffs as security for interest on mortgages held by them. The defense was that the defendant had never had possession of the farms, and was not, therefore, liable to pay the rent. It was shown, however, that the lease was made in pursuance of an agreement entered into by the defendant guaranteeing interest on the mortgages to an amount not exceeding $500, until the lands should be rented, and that he had entered into the lease to relieve himself from the guarantee. The defendant, while the lease was in force, had agreed to buy the society's mortgages at a price exclusive of rent, but had afterwards authorized the society to sell them to someone else, and he claimed that on such sale he was to be relieved from paying the rent. A great deal of evidence was given, the case lasting most of the day, but his honor held the defendant liable, and gave judg-ment against him for the amount

Last week the Democratic candidate special, consisting of nine cars, drawn by engine No. 145, an 89,009-pound menster. made the remarkable time of 78 miles an hour between Kansas City and St Louis. This is not so bad for a western road, and shows everything must be first-class on the Wabash. Oct. 9.—The Kempton DAN McCARTHY TOMORROW. At the Grand tomorrow, Dan. Mc-Carthy, the Irish comedian, will appear in two performances in his new Irish comedy, "The Irish Greenhorn." This play is said to fit McCarthy's style of acting better than anything he has ever appeared in. The afternoon performance will commence at 2:30, and the prices are but 15 and 25 cents. The night prices are 15, 25, 35 driving, etc. and 50 cents. Special scenery and costumes will be shown.

MR. WM. SAUNDERS, LL.D. Hereafter, it will be proper to speak of Mr. Wm. Saunders, director of the Dominion Experimental Farm, at Ottawa, as Dr. Saunders, Queen's University, Kingston, having conferred upon him the degree of LL.D., or Doctor of Laws, in recognition of his services in the cause of science, particularly in connection with the Experi-mental Farm. We congratulate our former townsman upon this deserved

PUBLIC SERVICE RULES. The following public service regulations have been passed by the Ontario Government and explain themselves: "That failure, personally, to attend to and supervise the duties of his office by a public officer or servant shall be a sufficient cause for removal from office. That incurring debts hereafter by officers or clerks of the civil service which they shall be unable to pay orders upon the treasury by such officers or clerks, unless previously authorized so to do by the treasurer in writing, is prohibited. That the habit of tippling, or being under the influence of intoxicating liquor by a public officer or servant during business or office hours shall be a sufficient cause for removal from office." The appeal of Rev. T. L. Mc-Cutcheon, of the London Conference against his superannuation was sustained, and the request of Miss Shaw for the benefits of the church annuity fund was granted. Two cases were heard from the Bay of Quinte Conference. Rev. M. E. Wilson gained the academic title of Ph. B. at a university in Chicago, and the conference relost. The Bay of Quinte Conference passed favorably upon the character of Rev. J. C. Ash, but did not give him conference relation, and this he wanted conferred upon him by the court. His appeal was sustained. A minister in the Toronto Conference declined to accept a certificate of membership, delivered by Mr. W. E. Southgate, and signed by another minister. The court declared against the refusal of the and 50 were juvenile. There is a decrease of crime under the head of indictable offenses this year. In 1893 there were 80 cases; in 1894, 85 cases; in 1895, 83 cases, and this year, 76 cases. Out of the 357 summary convictions, 97 were comomn drunks, 26 drunk and disorderly, 41 vagrants, 19 drunken vagrants, 122 cases of breach of the law, including riding bicycles on the sidewalks, horses and cows at large, obstructing the highway, etc.; 19 assault cases; disorderly conduct and fighting, 11; total, 335. The remaining 22 cases were of keeping disorderly houses, breach of the Liquor Act, gambling, immoderate

Out of the 357 convictions only 17 were women.
There were 98 prisoners incarcerat. ed in the jail for various periods, 13 in the Central Prison, and 2 in the Mercer Reformatory. One of them was Emily Wickett, who got two years for vagrancy. There are only three sentenced to six months in the Central, and 10 from two to six months. Sentence was suspended in 36 instances.

The total of fines imposed was $1, Of the 76 indictable offenses tried before the P. M., 50 were for stealing, 10 for fraud, 1 of pointing a pistol 5 assault and wounding, 1 of bringing stolen goods into Canada, 1 of non support, 1 of escaping from custody 1 of perjury, 2 of shop-breaking, 1 saulting a constable, and 1 of indecent assault.

The heaviest sentence imposed was upon James Grant, and James E. Granam, who each went to the Kingston Penitentiary for three years. Harry Allen comes next with two years and a half for horse stealing. Twelve prisoners were sent to the Central, 12 Stockwell's Dye Works were let go on suspended sentence, and no evidence was offered by the

Interesting Revelations in Toronto, Which Can Be Duplicated Elsewhere

(Special to The Advertiser.) Toronto, Oct. 9.-A gentleman in authority on the Conservative committee of one of the North Toronto divisions after the elections allowed one of his committee books to fall into the hands of the "Philistines"—the Liberals. The Philistines went through the volume with care. They made, it is said, a surprising discovery—that three post-men were actively working for the Conservative candidate, and that they were assigned to canvass in subdivisions in which they daily distributed letters! It is stated that the matter has been brought to the notice of the Postmaster-General.
