NEW JEWISH MISSION.

Presbyterians Are Back of the Organization.

The Presbyterian Mission to the Jews in Toronto was inaugurated last night in the new hall at the corner of Elm and Terulay-streets.

S. B. Rohold, who is to do the pioneer work for the mission, is the son of the chief rabbi of Palestine.

In connection with the mission there is a free dispensary in the building, presided over by Dr. McLennan, who gives two hours of two days a week in helping the poor Jew.

Short addresses were given by Prof. MacLaren, Rev. A. B. Winchester, Rev. W. D. Cooper, Rev. Dr. Gilray, Rev. Mr. Silcox, Henry Singer and Dr. Gaudier.

Robold spoke of the cordial welcome extended to him in Toronto during the nine weeks he has been here.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. Semi-Ready is Being Misrepresented in the City of Guelph.

MONTREAL, May 11.—C. P. Creamer, general manager of the Semi-Ready Company, says that their company intends to take action to protect the public against merchants who advertise and make use of their registered trade mark "Semi-Ready" without having either the authority to do so, or with out having the Semi-Ready agency.

Letters from Guelph have been received at their office calling attention to an infringement of their trade mark and trade policy.

CAN'T AGREE. (Canadian Associated Press Cable.) LONDON, May 11.—At Melbourne, the premier's conference concluded with little progress made towards a settlement of the financial arrangements between the states of the commonwealth.

STREET RAILWAY PLAN NOT YET ADOPTED

Negotiations Will Be Continued—Cataract Company Get a Civic Contract.

HAMILTON, May 11.—(Special.)—The city council this evening did not commit itself to the latest street railway proposition, but contented itself with authorizing the conference committee to continue negotiations.

This afternoon Barton Township Council took no action on the application for a license of the company which wants to establish a park at James W. H. Bisby of Long & Bisbee died to-night, aged 72. He had lived in Hamilton for 45 years. He is survived by a widow.

The extradition proceedings in connection with the case of Nelson Carrion, Columbus, were adjourned until Wednesday. The defence hopes to be able to prevent extradition.

GIVING BETTER VALUES. Semi-Ready Quality Begins Where the Ready-Made Clothier Ends.

The growth of the Semi-Ready idea in making men's clothes is exemplified in the better values. Some ten years ago there were three Semi-Ready stores in Canada; the first opened in Montreal, and the second in Toronto.

George McPherson, 39 North Catherine-street, a street railway man, visited the home of his wife, with whom he has not lived for the past eight months, at 69 York-street, about noon to-day, seized their nine-year-old daughter and ran down the street towards the city hall.

Col. Hanbury Williams has telegraphed the committee in charge of the Queen Victoria memorial statue that the governor-general will be pleased to conduct the unveiling at any time of the day selected by the ladies.
