TO HAVE AND TO HOLD ATTENTION

You must wear "Sovereign Brand" Clothes—the kind that keep far, far away from old-fashioned styles that are as full of snap as a fire-cracker and as alive as an electric wire.

MANY DOWN WITH PLEURISY

WILL OFFER AN INCREASE TO RETAIN HIS PASTOR

But 'Tis Likely Rev. Dr. Nelson Will Go—Cases in the Police Court.

HAMILTON, Dec. 10.—(Special).—A meeting of the session of Knox Church was held to-night to discuss the question of making inducements to Rev. Dr. Nelson to reconsider his decision to resign the pastorate.

Thomas Lewis and Robt. Edwards found themselves in the police court this morning because Edwards laughed and played hymns. The magistrate decided to meddle with their dispute.

Joseph Chubb, an Indian living in the department for several years, was removed from the voters' list of Salt-revised the list. The judge ruled that as Beach residents they have no right to vote on the local option bylaw or in the municipal elections.

The police force were baffled and despite the increased staff of night men, were unable until today to trace the robbers. The boys had in their possession hundreds of keys which gave them access to almost any store they wished.

It is believed that the boys have been carrying on their nefarious operations for months. Their latest robbery was at the wholesale grocery on Downie-street, several sacks of goods having been stolen.

Wagstaff, Limited, are always to the fore. They are making a good exhibition of the old English plum pudding and mince-meat.

WHY GRAVE OF T. C. DRUCE HAS NEVER BEEN OPENED

Herbert Druce, in Whom Ownership Was Vested, Persisted in Refusal—Court Crowded.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The seventh hearing in the Druce case at the Clerkenwell Police Court today lacked the sensational features of the previous one, but the bench was again filled with fashionably-dressed women.

Why He Frightened the Duke. "While hunting in 1875," said the witness, "I saw the duke and frightened him and made him look at me. I pretended to ride over him."

Why Grave Was Opened. The reason of all these changes is, in fact, that the Knickerbocker Trust Company obtained legal permission for the opening of the grave to prove whether it contained the body of the Duke of Devonshire.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—In the course of a careful investigation into the affairs of the Knickerbocker Trust Company, The Herald was informed that not only is there an excellent prospect of an early resumption of business by the company, but that under any plan of reorganization or liquidation it will eventually receive a dollar for every dollar of its stock.
