PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"THE LODGER" TONIGHT.

"The Lodger," the English comedy success to be presented at the Alex-andra Theatre for three days commencing tonight, received a rare compliment at the hands of the London Times recently. The company coming here is an all-English cast headed by the two English store. a simple and Phyllis Relph. It is comedy. Every character is true, every situation, however amusing, is egitimate and natural.

"THE GIRL FROM BRAZIL."

A gay and gorgeous metropolitan premiere of the Messrs. Shubert protion of the latest continental musical comedy success, "The Girl From Brazil," will be presented at the Alexandra Theatre all next week with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. Uith al thie pomp and magnificence which characterized its brilliant run at the 44th Street Theatre, New York, this gem of melody will be here in its entirety with the original cast and

JOHN MASON IN "COMMON CLAY."

At the Grand Opera House next week A. H. Woods will present Cleves Kinkead's Harvard prize play, "Common Clay." This is the drama which startled Boston when it was produced two years ago after the Harvard University awarded it the prize from its "English 47" class. It is in three acts and the theme is that of a poor working girl who, thru the sheer force of her brains, rises to distinction after passing thru harrowing misfortunes and betrayals.

LOEW'S.

The Al Golem Troupe, of Oriental marvels, with a company of 20 enter-tainers, will head the bill at Loew's the coming week. Juliet Wood and pany, in a Roman travesty, furnish laugh after laugh from start to finish. Geo. Tabor and Monroe Green will sing some of their own melodies and popular song hits. Gray and Klumker, "Those Southern Babies," will offer songs and dances, and Clifford and Wells, Powder and Capman, Dufty and Daisy and others will also appear on this bill. "Her Double Life," five-act photo-production, Theda Bara in the leading role, will

HIPPODROME.

For next week the Hippodrome management offer an exceptionally clever bill, headed by the dramatic sketch, "The Scoop." Deodata, Italy's cele-brated illusionist, performs many mystifying feats, while his sleight-of-hand offerings are both educative of-hand offerings are both educative and amusing. Lillian Fitzgerald has a number of new songs, while Eddie Hill is a novelty shadowghaphist with some interesting and amusing pictures which are thrown on a screen. Charlle which are thrown on a screen. Charlle Kenrose, a monologist, with some new material and clever songs; Gordon and Graham, Hart and Woods, and feeting the control of feature film attractions-the Keystone kind-complete the bill.

SHEA'S

Bloscom Scoley, the syncopated song Shea's next week with George Whiting and Sadie Burt, in the novelty playlet, "A Little Spectator." Artic character songs that are particularly good. Miss Fong Tong Gue and Harry Haw are capable Chinese singers. J. Booth and "Happy" Leander. in "Something to Talk About," have a while Bert Hanlon,
