PANAMA HATS

Men! the Comforts of a Panama for the Small Outlay of $5.00

And this year will be considered a very low price for a hat of South American Panama—a cool, good-looking hat that sits lightly and comfortably on the head.

These are to be had in three of the season's favorite blocks. One is a fedora with creased crown and flared brim or flat brim with pencil-rolled edges; another is a smart boater shape, and the other is a half-telescope style with round hollow crown and flat brim.

Straw Hats for Children, $3.75

Made from good shonksi straw braid, sailor shape, with brims that may be worn rolled up all around or turned down. In black or black with white edge, and all trimmed with band and bow at side and well lined.

Caps for Men and Boys, $2.00

These are of wool and cotton, cotton and wool and cotton tweeds, with one and eight-piece crowns, in grey, green, navy, fawn and brown. Sizes 6 3/8 to 7 3/8. Price, $2.00.

And at $2.50 Are Boater Straw Hats

Of fine, even sennit braids in moderate proportions, with plain or saw edges and leather sweat-band. Sizes 6 3/8 to 7 3/8. Price, $2.50.

$23.00 Suits For Men

Present Very Interesting Value

And a Splendid Choice of Quiet, Good-Looking Patterns

Another feature about them is that they're in models for men who are of regular height and average build, or for men who are short, or less than average stature, and of regular build. They are firmly woven union wool and cotton cheviot effect tweeds, in plain dark grey, grey with oxblood stripe and medium dark grey with green stripe.

Youths' Khaki Trousers Are Priced at $2.85

Just the trousers for camping or knockabout wear; they're of firmly-woven cotton khaki duck, in outing style, with five strong pockets, belt loops and cuff bottoms. Sizes 28 to 31. Price, pair, $2.85.

UNDERWEAR

Men's Balbriggan Underwear, a Leader in Underwear Value at 55c

It's such a very attractive value that it is, just now, prime favorite with men. It measures up to every requirement for present wear, yet the price is a most unusual one. It is Balbriggan Underwear of fine, thin cotton of natural shade.

And at $3.25 Are Coat Style Shirts

They're made with soft double cuffs, and sleeves are various lengths. Have good full bodies and sleeves; seams are all strongly sewn; and materials are fine Cambrics, in many clustered and grouped stripes of purple, green, brown, black and blue on light grounds.

Soft Collars at 29c are Unusual Value

There are "Tooke", "W. G. & R" and "Arrow" collars, in favorite shapes of plain or fancy plaques, Habu-ud silk or corded repps—some of the latter with fine black horizontal stripe.

Bathing Suits at 98c

Men's Bathing Suits, in one piece, with skirt and two-buttoned shoulder. Made of cotton yarn, in navy blue with orange or white trimmings, or slate grey with cardinal trimmings on skirt and trunk. Sizes 34 to 44. Special value, suit, 98c.

MELBOURNE WILD OVER THE PRINCE

Cable From Premier Describes Enthusiasm Over His Visit.

Melbourne, Australia, June 4.—Prime Minister Hughes had sent a cable despatch to Australian commissioners abroad, describing the enthusiastic welcome given the Prince of Wales in Australia.

The prince drove eight miles through gallantly-decorated streets packed by 600,000 people, waving and shouting their welcome and vying with the guns of the Australian fleet in the harbor.

At night the Government House ball was attended by throngs of people of all classes. Millions of lights provided a gorgeous illumination.

The prime minister adds: "Australia welcomes our prince and future king as the symbol of the empire of glorious traditions, and all that it stands for, because in him we see all the qualities of the race which carried it thru the ages, and with the allies, thru the last great struggle. He is welcomed as prince, soldier and man."

A. E. FOREMAN IS NEW GOOD ROADS PRESIDENT

Winnipeg, June 4.—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Good Roads Association last night the question of the Canadian highway came up in the form of a recommendation of the resolutions committee that the association urge upon the Dominion government and the provincial governments co-operative action to bring about an early planning of schemes.

Two Aylmer Youths Rescue Three Ottawans From Drowning

Ottawa, June 4.—After fighting desperately for 40 minutes to retain their precarious hold upon a capsized dingy, battered by the highest waves which have swept Lake Deschene this summer, Fred McDougall, son of Dr. A. H. McDougall, principal of Ottawa Collegiate Institute, with two companions, was rescued from a watery grave yesterday afternoon thru the gallantry of two Aylmer youths, Douglas Currie and Andrew Blair.

RESORT TO TENTS TO BEAT LANDLORDS

More Than Hundred Families Comfortably Sheltered in Suburb of Newark, N.J.

Newark, N.J., June 4.—One hundred and ten families evicted by landlords are comfortably housed in Vailsburgh Park under tents loaned to the city of Newark by the war department. It is a real Tentville, whose denizens, all the temporarily homeless, are as happy as could be expected in a community forced to live outdoors. It is expected that, before the end of summer, 200 more families will have joined the little colony.

APPOINT JOHN PORTER NORFOLK COUNTY CLERK

Simcoe, Ont., June 4.—John Porter, county treasurer of Norfolk, received the appointment of county clerk at the sessions of the county council held here this week. He has been acting clerk since the death of Elias Boughner, some weeks ago, as a result of burns received while putting out a blaze in his office. Mr. Porter is a barrister, a member of the firm of Kelly and Porter, and has been a resident of this town for many years.

UKRAINIANS EXECUTE 87 BOLSHEVIK ENVOYS

Berne, Switzerland, June 4.—Ukrainian official sources report that 87 Bolsheviki emissaries and commissioners who were taken prisoner by Galician-Ukrainian troops were condemned to death and shot. It was alleged the Bolsheviki had committed extraordinary atrocities against the population.
