SUPERIOR PAINLESS DENTISTRY!

"There is a world wide cry against the dentists that they torture their patients. Those of strong physique submit and endure the agony. With a second class this is simply impossible, and thousands of teeth are neglected and lost even though the patients may be able to pay for our most skillful services. Then there is a third class who, after months of mental torture in anticipation, finally come into our hands, and with nerves strung to a hurtful point, pass through the ordeal, but at what a cost! We do not sufficiently consider the consequences of shock in the dental chair, yet undoubtedly many suffer for months and even years from injuries to the nervous system received whilst in our hands.

The greatest duty of our profession today is to discover and adopt a mode of painlessly performing our operations."

NOTE—The above is an abstract from a paper read by an eminent dentist of New York City before a society of dentists in Philadelphia. The famous Hale Method of painless dentistry, for which we are sole agents for Canada is the best Method on earth.

LATE LOCALS

The signallers of the 3rd regiment, C.A., will meet tonight in the main drill hall, at 8 o'clock.

H. Harris Digger of Mt. Hebron spent a few days last week in Westfield at the home of Mrs. Leander Lingley, before returning to Sackville to resume his studies at Mt. Allison University.

The Nova Scotia schooner Golden Bell, Captain Wentzel, arrived in port this morning from San Juan, Porto Rico, with a cargo of molasses for the Crosby Molasses Company. The schooner came into the harbor with all sails set, except her top-sails and made a pretty sight.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dow, of Lowell, Mass., are in the city on a holiday trip and will also visit Fredericton. Mr. Dow belongs here but left St. John when young and, like others from this city who have gone to the States in search of fortune, has done well. He is now inspector of lands and buildings in Lowell.

The dog show opened this afternoon. Most of the dogs were in their places at the Queen's Rink. Thomas Moore, who is to act as judge, arrived this morning from Montreal. The show will be in full swing by tonight. The judging will be by tonight. The judging will be begun tonight at 8 o'clock sharp. The big dogs will be judged first and the owners are expected to be present to take them into the ring.

The list of invited guests to the complimentary dinner to be given tomorrow evening at the Union Club by the board of trade to the members of the Royal Commission on British West India Trade matters, is as follows: Lieut. Governor Tweedie, Chief Justice Barker, Mayor Bullock, Recorder Skinner, Hon. William Pugsley, Dr. J. D. Maher, M. F., Col. H. McLean, M. P., and John Hendry, of Vancouver, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, who is now in the city.

Many St. John friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Thomas Rutter, who has done so well at the St. Anne de Bellevue College, will not go west as was planned. She had accepted a position in Vancouver as teacher but Prof. Robertson, valuing her so highly, has declined to lose her services to St. Anne's College and has appointed her to a good position as teacher at the same salary she would have had in Vancouver. Next year, to means an increase in salary and likely a residence. Mrs. Warlock, who planned to accompany Mrs. Ruter west has also abandoned the trans-continental trip.

John Hendry, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, with his secretary, Hugh A. Matier, and Frank Hawkins, secretary of the Canadian Lumbermen's Association, held a conference at noon today in the Royal Hotel parlors with a number of the local lumbermen with a view of interest in the work of the association. During the morning the visitors drove about the city and over to several of the big lumber mills and this afternoon will accompany the visiting cabinet ministers on a tour around the harbor front.

RICHARD FARMER PASSES AWAY

Esteemed North End Man Dies in His 79th Year

The death of Richard Farmer at his home, 293 Main street, this morning, removed one of St. John's best known and most esteemed citizens. He had been in failing health for some time. He was seventy-nine years of age and lived all his life in this city. As a young man he became employed in a lumber office and, succeeding in the work, followed it up by going into business for himself in 1860 in Mill street then known as "Portland Bridge."

About fifteen years ago he retired from this business. He was appointed a city assessor and acted in that capacity until a few years ago. He had faithfully performed the duties of a similar office before the union of Portland and St. John, working as an assessor for Portland.

In military circles also Mr. Farmer took an active part, having been for many years a member of the artillery, from which he retired with the rank of major. He was also one of the volunteer force at the time of the Fenian Raid. Another office in which he acquitted himself with credit was that of secretary of the P. O. C. T. U. corporation, a post which he held for many years, and at the same time he was acting as vester-master of St. Luke's church, North End. He was a very popular member of No. 3 fire department, in which he filled the position of secretary for a number of years.

Besides his wife, Mr. Farmer is survived by two sons and three daughters. The sons are: Arthur B., bookkeeper for Chas. Miller, and Richard C. of the inland revenue department. Misses Alice, Beattie and Annie, residing at home, are the daughters. It has not yet been definitely decided when the funeral will be held, as Arthur Farmer is at present in New York and there may be some difficulty in reaching him by wire.

DOG DAY AND ITS PHASES IN POLICE COURT

Present or Past Owners of Canines Give Reasons Why No Licenses Were Secured—No Police Dog a Protection, One Excuse

Today was dog day in the police court, and all kinds of excuses were the order, but a large number paid without an explanation. Amongst various names of dogs handed in "Teddy" seemed to be the prime favorite, there being sixty apparently named after the former strenuous president of the United States.

Judge Ritchie announced that next year there would be no excuses taken, and fines would be struck when owners were summoned. The following were some of the excuses offered:

Mr. Burton, of Elm street—Dog killed by street car last May.

E. Salsen, 83 British street, never owned a dog.

Hugh Beck, Clarence street, had been away, and when he came home sent down $2, but they wouldn't accept it; allowed to go.

Charles Stanton's bitch died last May.

Joseph Walsh, North street—Did not own a dog. Patrolman Sullivan said that a dog was about Walsh premises and his neighbor said the dog belonged to him.

Walsh claimed it belonged to John Costigan, who had a license. He is told to straighten matters out before Tuesday next.

James McGillivray—Sent his dog away last Saturday. He was told to get a license out by next Tuesday.

Wm. Grant—Destroyed dog before summons was served.

Thos. Macaulay, King street, west end, gave dog to man named Hanson; allowed to go.

S. W. Saunders, of Carleton—Gave dog away some time ago.

Geo. Millidge showed a freight receipt to prove that he had shipped the dog to the country by the May Queen on May 8.

Mr. Sullivan, Britain street, said dog belonged to brother, who died. He was told to fix the matter by Monday.

Joseph French agreed to give his dog to a person less April but he did not come after him.

Alex. W. Doherty, Elliott Row—Gave dog away after policeman had called in May.

Thos. Rippey, Carleton—Had been keeping a dog for ten days in May for a man in the country.

Charles Ramsey, Victoria street—Dog stolen the day of the circus.

Elizabeth Wilson sent in money for license.

Joseph Stephenson was given a chance to get out a license by Saturday.

A. J. Gross had shipped dog to country early in spring.

Mr. Walsh paid license for a "puppy."

Fred Boudreau said the dog belonged to another man and spent the time at the two houses. It had been kicked by a man and he was going to destroy it. He was told to do so at once.

Fred King had a dog but he drowned it.

James Chancy, of Marsh Road—Gave license money to a boy but he spent it; he was told to fix the matter up by Tuesday.

Fred Smith—Gave his dog away in May to Herb Craft, of Carleton. It had been had since. It drowned it lately.

Smith—"In a pond back of Pokiook."

Mr. McMinnam, drowned his dog.

James Chancy, of Marsh Road, had dog with sore ear and he destroyed it.

Mrs. Martin Penney had dog with fits and drowned it.

Miles Thorne, of Waterloo street—Sent dog to country on May 1.

John McInnis, of Spring Cove Road—Had dog for protection as there was no policeman out there. He did not think he should pay a license.

Thos. Peasering, of Carleton, was not working at the time and could not pay license.

John Donovan—Had dog destroyed.

THE STRUGGLE BETWEEN CAMERON AND STIRLING

Of last Friday's five mile race between Cameron and Stirling at Amherst the Amherst News says:—

"For thirteen laps there was a magnificent struggle for leadership between the remaining two competitors. Again and again did Stirling start to get Cameron in the rear, but when St. John's man ran fast, Cameron ran faster, and all the exertions of Stirling to gain the front and regulate the pace proved unavailing.

"The race in the earlier stages of the race had been too swift for Stirling and before the race was half run he had taken a stick in his eye, which compelled him to slacken his speed until it passed away."

The paper also says that at the finish Stirling's reception was equal to that of Cameron.

The pair will come together again on October 9, at the Every Day Club sports here when the distance will be ten miles. It remains to be seen what the Amherst man can do at that distance. The longer distance is Stirling's strong point.
