JEALOUS MAN KILLS
WIFE AND SELF
Boston, Oct. 27—Jealous of his wife and his mind inflamed because she had left him and gone to the home of a friend in the Back Bay, Irvine W. Fletcher, aged 29, a conductor on the Boston Elevated Railroad, sought out his wife, Beulah Fletcher, aged 28 years, at 36 Batavia Street, late today and shot and killed her and then committed suicide. A two-year-old daughter of the couple was the only witness to the deed.
Mrs. Fletcher was born in Calais, Maine, and leaves a mother, who now resides in Malden (Mass.).

BELLE OF RICHMOND,AT THE OPERA HOUSE

The Belle of Richmond as presented by the Klark-Urban Company at the Opera House last evening proved an excellent attraction and was heartily enjoyed by a large audience. The specialties by A. E. Tenny, comedy juggler; Klark-Urban and the Schrieber Brothers, in their musical act; Frank Clayton, musical comedian, and Klark and Hanson in comedy sketches, were especially good.

NICKEL'S FINEYACHTING VIEWS

It will be a strange thing if today there is not general comment upon the Nickel's show now running, for last evening the applause was continuous, not only applaus for the singers but for the pictures as well, which is a most unusual thing. It was a clear case of downright appreciation, especially in the instance of the charming yachting film—a series of the most interesting views at the Royal Yacht Squadron's Regatta off Cowes, Isle of Wight. The inspiring scenes as the towering yachts heeled over and sped through the breakers and their immense spread of canvas were the best of the kind ever seen in St. John, city enthusiastic in this sport. Hundreds of yachtsmen were good enough to express their thanks for being privileged to see such fine pictures here.

The Selby feature, A Cowboy Millionaire, was a scream of merriment from start to finish, and the circus antics of the real cowboys were in themselves a treat to see. Traced by a Camera proved a pretty little child story with a pony as the hero. Today Fred Driscoll enters upon the last three days of his engagement in the song, I've Found a Girl, and Master George Fairbank will render the Indian ditty, Moon Bird, in costume. The Nickel has a trump card of the first magnitude for Monday. Watch for Friday's announcement.

STAR'S BIG ATTRACTIONSTONIGHT AND FRIDAY

The magnificent Indian film-story "Onawanda" is the Star Theatre's premier feature for tonight, though the other films "A Romance of an Umbrella," and "The Story of a Bank Note," are also first-class. It is one of the best shows of the season and made a strong impression last evening.

On Friday Saturday the Star is to show its patrons the undoubtedly feature-picture of the whole year in the Hudson-Fulton military land parade in New York city. This is not a rather vague parade of vessels like the naval parade at this time, but a lively, magnificent military review with the British blimpets and the German are there, too, also the American, French, etc. This big picture will be shown tomorrow night, Saturday afternoon and evening.

M. P. WEDS AN ACTRESS

London, October 28—Confirmation of the report of the marriage of an American actress to one of the best known among the young commoners of England, is obtained. The bride is Mary Kinder, who came from New York a couple of years ago and made her debut as one of the twins in "Peter Pan," later appearing in musical comedy. The bridegroom is Henry Jacob Dalval Ashley, who, though untitled, belongs to one of the oldest families in England. An Ashley was created Baron Hastings in the thirteenth century, and the present holder of the title is the twenty-first baron.

Henry Ashley came of age only a year ago, when he succeeded his father, the Bucks, one of the finest estates in England, his father having died in 1904. The marriage has been kept secret, owing to the opposition of the young man's mother, who contracted a second marriage with the Hon. Claud Willoughby, son of the Earl of Lancaster.

As Miss Kinder's stage experience was slight and as she is a very pretty and charming girl, various members of her husband's family have taken her up, and hope to overcome Mrs. Willoughby's objections.

BORDEN SCORED BYTORY PAPER

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 27—"Under" the caption "Time for Plain Speaking," the Tribune says that if the Conservative party hopes to attain power it must do something more positive than follow the steps of the present administration on national questions.

Continuing: "For instance, there is the paramount question of establishing a tin pot navy in Canada to assist the mother country through the crisis being forced by Germany, a crisis which is threatening British naval supremacy. Every man with brains enough in his head to influence him to come in out of the wet knows that if the assistance which the Canadian people (with the possible exception of a small ultra-montane section in Quebec) are prepared to render to the mother country, it is to be effective, is indeed to be of any value whatever, it must be such as to strengthen the central navy and not some provision for a few vessels about our own coasts which would be scattered like sea gulls on the appearance of a real enemy."

After reciting the activity shown at the imperial conference and since, in regard to assisting the imperial navy, the Tribune asks: "Where are the Conservatives officially on this great issue? That party with whom Orangemen have always co-operated, and which has always regarded itself in a peculiar sense the bulwark of British supremacy in Canada, was entrapped last session through its leader into supporting the government resolutions for a Canadian navy, but since then the rank and file have shown that they are in opposition to Mr. Borden's position and are grown tired of kissing the foot of Quebec which has been steadily, persistently and actively engaged in kicking the party for more years than one cares to count.

"It is high time for revolt."

The party merely stands for the same thing that the two thieves on the cross stood for, then it is immaterial to the crowd which one runs the administration.

YOUNG PRODIGALSCATTERS GOLD

London, Oct. 28—It has just been learned that just prior to the departure of the Baltic from Liverpool for New York on Saturday a young and well-dressed man, who had been leaning over the rail gazing intently at the people below, suddenly plunged his hand in his pocket, drew out a handful of gold and silver coins and hurled them through the air to the landing stage.

There was a lively melee and mixup by the porters, to the great delight of the passengers. The eccentric dispenser of wealth, said to be a young American millionaire, repeated the performance a number of times, to the increasing excitement of the crowds on the docks and landing stage.

Some of the coins became stuck in the crevices of the dock or rebounded to the pontoons, and after the steamer left the porters counted sixteen pounds sterling ($80) of loot.

McCARREN'S OIL LANDSINCOME FOR FAMILY

Brooklyn, Oct. 28—Patrick H. McCarrren, it is said by his friends, was able not long before his death, to get backing enough to invest heavily in an oil well scheme in Montana. The land involved cost about $700,000, most of which was furnished by the senator. So valuable is the property, it is said, that had the senator lived he would have had command of a large fortune through the working of the wells. His interest, it is believed, remains in his family and his heirs will receive the benefit of what is thought to be his latest financial venture.

William S. Hurley, vice-president of the Borough Bank of Brooklyn, and a close friend of the senator, is at present in Billings, Mont., looking over the property and promoting the enterprise. He is to organize the company which will operate the wells.

Associated with Senator McCarrren in the scheme, it is said, were Comptroller Metz, Samuel S. Westinghouse and Mr. Hurley.

CATARH MUST GO

And Hawking, Spitting, Snuffles Must Go Too

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) will give the sufferer from catarrh joyful relief in five minutes.
It is such a remarkable cure and so positive in its action, that Chas. R. Watson goes so far as to guarantee it to cure catarrh or money back.

A complete outfit, which consists of a hard rubber pocket inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and a upfume dropper for filling the inhaler, only costs one dollar, and if an extra bottle is afterwards needed the price is only 50 cents.

Hyomei is a healing, germicidal balsam, taken from the mighty eucalyptus trees in the health-giving forest of Australia, where diseases of the respiratory tract are unknown.

All the sufferers have to do is to inhale the antiseptic gas of Hyomei over the inflamed parts where the germs are entrenched, three or four times a day. It cures coughs, colds, asthma, hay fever and croup without stomach dosing.
