

read on the work of the World's W.C.T.U., a collection was taken up for Union purposes. In February they held their Teacher's Social, at which one of their members, Dr. Ellen Burt, gave a paper on Health Foods, no collection was taken. The fourth and last was held at the residence of Mrs. Bascom, when Miss Wiggins gave an address on the "World's W.C.T.U. convention and some of the women we expect to meet." A collection was taken up at this meeting which closed a successful year.

Creighton held a very pleasant Parlor Meeting at the home of Mrs. M. A. Rose, Bellevue Ave., March 6th, about 60 were in attendance. Nine new members joined the Union, and several members were obtained by workers who were present from other Unions. The addresses were good, and great interest in our work was shown.

Gordon reports three entertainments during the year.

Northern on November 20th held a Social in the parlors of Bloor St. Baptist Church, which was addressed by Chancellor Wallace, and Mrs. Whitman of Nova Scotia. Also a splendid programme of music, etc. was furnished, and refreshments were served.

On March 18th a Social was held at the residence of Mrs. Daniel Rose, Avenue Road, which was well attended, Mrs. Rutherford in the chair. A good programme was given. Miss Wiggins addressed the meeting on the coming Convention. On April 21st a meeting was held in the Central Methodist Church School Room.

In June Northern, Deer Park and Willard held a joint Social in the Victoria College. The attendance was large, the programme good, the building beautiful, and plentifully decorated with flowers, and everything passed off to our entire satisfaction. Your Superintendents would recommend more of these joint Socials, as the same programme would be required for a small one, and more are interested in making the meeting a success, and the labor individually less when shared by many.

Youmans held 2 Parlor Socials during the past year, and they were a great success, bringing in several new members.

Central Y's held 2 Parlor Socials, one in November in Zion Church at the Dominion Convention, and one at their rooms, for Miss Gordon of Ottawa, Superintendent of Y work, who gave an address on Temperance. Here we must state that the Y's are always on hand to help in any of our entertainments belonging to the District.

The District held their annual Tea in March, which has been so useful in bringing out all our old members. They also held a successful meeting when the Shelter was opened, able addresses were delivered and refreshments served. Also an afternoon meeting when the mite boxes were opened. A great many of the members brought plants for
