Y. M. C. A. House League.

The Sparrows capped all four points from the Hawks in the Y. M. C. A. House League game rolled on the Y. M. C. A. alleys last evening. The winners were in rare form as three of their five bowlers averaged over the century mark, Copp being high man with 104-1-3. Harrington's single string of 121 was also a feature of the match. The latter is at present leading the fourth series for the high average and is rapidly overtaking the season's leader. Last night's scores were:

Hawks—	Total Avg.
Hansen	84 78 89 251 80-2-3

The Days of Old, the Days of Gold, the Days of '49!

And under a giant redwood, on a wild Sierra slope, a little troop of wandering minstrels. A trembling girl, with a violin, playing "Nelly Gray." A band of outlaws listening. Then the spell is broken; the demon awakes. Who shall take her? A maddening battle. The bandit leader wins, and—the rest is a song of a soul's regeneration.

"The 3-Word Brand"

BILL HART IS BELOVED BY EVERYBODY because he is not a rough cowboy but a dignified, fatherly character always ready with a swift horse, an unfailing lasso and a hair-trigger gun to defend women and children in danger of Indians and bad white men. In today's brand new Paramount feature our hero is concerned in an Indian raid—a truly historical incident in which two little boys and a pretty girl are principal figures.

Inter-Room Game.

The two grade ten High School rooms picked up ten yesterday and in a friendly basketball match on the Y. M. C. A. floor the team from Mr. Denham's room defeated the team from Mr. Brooks' room by a 15 to 13 count. The outcome was rather a surprise as it was thought Mr. Brooks' team would easily defeat their opponents because two of the High School intermediate team were on Mr. Brooks' line-up. The both line-ups are as follows:

BASEBALL.

Can Tyler Come Back?

Some years ago, when Joe Wood's pitching arm lost its effectiveness, critics said he was through and soon his name would be forgotten by the baseball fans. His critics were right in one sense—he was through as a pitcher; but "Smoky Joe" came back, and today he is a very Handy Andy for the Cleveland Indians to have around.

Now it is "Lefty" Tyler, who with Bill Jones and Dick Rudolph pitched the Braves to a world's championship in 1914, who wants to "come back." For two years past his arm has been bothering him, but "Lefty" believes now that it is in good shape again, and has perched the Braves to give him another trial.

Whether Tyler can still better the batters is a problematical question; however, others have done it before. Take Chicago, March 10—Kenesaw Mountain Landis, baseball commissioner, will leave here tonight for his tour of the southern major league training camps, according to present plans. He will first visit the Brooklyn club's camp at Jacksonville, Fla., arriving there Sunday morning and west, covering virtually every training point before returning to Chicago. Commissioner Landis has not completed his itinerary, but expects to be ready to announce it in a day or two.

Tampa, Fla., March 10—Judge K. M. Landis will witness the first exhibition game of the training season here between the Washington Americans and the Boston Nationals, March 18, according to a letter received from Judge Landis by Clark Griffith, president of the Washington club.

Off to Join Yankees.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 10—Mike McNally, Al Devorner and J. Franklin "Home Run" Baker started for New Orleans to join the main squad of the New York Americans. Babe Ruth, Waite Hoyt, Carl Mays and the other Yankees in training here have set no definite time for leaving. Colonel T. L. Huston also has postponed his departure.

Hugh Duffy and his Boston Red Sox were augmented today by the arrival of Quinn, Lynn, Hendricks and Penock.
