

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat and Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Out Kidneys—Drink Plenty Water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so that it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Future Gold Stars.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—More youthful golfers have come to the fore in the west than anywhere else in the country this season, with this district a close second. In the "wild and woolly" the names of Richard Bockencamp, Clarence Wolf and James Manion of St. Louis, Randolph Knepfer of Sioux City and James G. Ward of Kansas City are heard wherever golfers gather. All of these players were practically unknown, except in their own localities, before this season. Bockencamp, Manion and Knepfer all qualified for the national championship at Oakmont, Bobby Jones being responsible for both Manion's and Knepfer's defeat. Knepfer only recently defeated Donald Edwards in one of the Chicago open tournaments, and Bockencamp went to the final round in both the Trans-Mississippi and western amateur events. Hereabouts, Jesse Sweetster, an Ardley youngster, is the main hope for the future.

THIRD BIG BALL LEAGUE POSSIBLE

Edsel Ford Ready to Back Detroit Team, Says Report—Sinclair, Ruppert, Frazee, Comiskey and McKinney Interested

New York, Nov. 9.—If Ban Johnson, president of the American League, persists in ignoring the board of directors of that organization, all signs point to a big shake-up in organized baseball. It may even be that a third major league will be started. That is one of the things that has been talked about since Johnson refused to meet the committee which is to recommend a man as the successor to August Herrmann as chairman of the National Commission.

Johnson's action angered Coy Joseph Ruppert, because Ban said he would not meet the committee, which consists of Col. Rupert, William F. Baker of Philadelphia National League club and William T. Veech of the Chicago Cubs, as long as Col. Ruppert was on that committee.

And it angered Charles A. Comiskey and H. H. Frazee, brother members of the American League board of directors with Col. Ruppert, because they believe Johnson is "stalling" until the American League annual meeting at Chicago next month and Messrs. Ruppert, Comiskey and Frazee can be dropped from this board of directors and new representatives of the league named on the joint committee to suggest a successor to Mr. Herrmann.

Before starting for Chicago, Mr. Comiskey said that the New York, Chicago and Boston clubs would not be "frozen out" by Johnson, but would "protect themselves," when the proper time came. It was reported that in case the five clubs which remain faithful to Johnson in the American League attempt to "put the skids" under the present board of directors and try to keep the New York Yankees players from their share in the world's series receipts, it would not be surprising if a third big league came into being next spring. In this connection these cities and men were mentioned as possible associates of the Chicago, Boston and New York clubs:

Cleveland, Price McKinney; Detroit, Edsel Ford, son of Henry Ford, and head of his father's automobile company; Montreal, Commander J. K. L. Ross, horseman, and Pittsburgh, Harry Sinclair.

It is said that Toronto, where J. J. McCaffrey reigns supreme in baseball, and Baltimore, with Jack Dunn as president, both International League cities,

GLAD HE TOOK FRIEND'S ADVICE

McKinnon Says the Day He Bought Tanlac Was One of the Luckiest in His Life.

"One of the luckiest days of my life was the day I bought my first bottle of Tanlac," said Edward M. McKinnon, while in Turnbull's Drug Store in Sydney, N. S., a few days ago. Mr. McKinnon is a well-to-do farmer who owns a large farm on Sydney River, and is well known and very popular with everybody in his section. Continuing, he said:

"I suffered the worst sort from indigestion, and I would have sharp burning pains in my stomach that sometimes would nearly draw me double. I couldn't sleep at night and often I would have to get up and walk the floor for hours. I would also have the headache so bad that it would seem like my head was splitting open. I felt miserable and had a dull worn out feeling all the time, and was so weak I could not do my work. I tried every kind of medicine I heard of but nothing I took did me any good."

"A friend of mine advised me to try Tanlac and I took his advice, and, believe me, it was the best thing that ever happened to me. I got relief from those pains almost immediately after I began on the first bottle. I kept on taking it until now I feel as well as I have in years. My stomach was never in better condition and I can sleep like a log and feel fit and full of energy when I get up in the morning. Tanlac is a great medicine and I am telling all my friends and neighbors about it."

are anxious to get a chance at big-league ball.

There wouldn't be any lack of money in this proposed circuit to sustain a baseball war, if one should come, it was pointed out, as the men involved being wealthy.

If the Ford interests in Detroit should take up baseball, Frank Navin, the present owner of the Tigers, and the other owners of the Tigers, would not manage the Tigers next season and if he should tie up with a new organization of his players would probably follow him.

H. H. Frazee said the third league story was news to him. He said the American League board of directors had acted in the matter of the money due the Yankees in a perfectly legitimate manner, and that the next move is up to the National Commission.

As the National Commission left the matter to the American League to settle, there is the possibility, Mr. Frazee seemed to fear, that that body will not recognize the recommendation of the directors.

All this will serve to delay a settlement until the league meetings next month, and then Messrs. Frazee, Ruppert and Comiskey may lose their control of the board of directors.

In Chicago Johnson was quoted as saying that as the Mays case is still in the courts he would consider himself restrained from taking any action in the matter of the disposal of the moneys to the Yankees.

News of the Boxers.

Joe Tippit of Philadelphia has been matched by the Army A. A. of Boston, to meet Harry Carlson at Mechanic's Building, Tuesday night.

Joe Jeannette and Bartley Madden will meet at Philadelphia on Nov. 17.

Benny Leonard and Joe Welling will box at Philadelphia on the American Thanksgiving Day.

Jack Britton, welterweight champion, outpointed Johnny Tillman, in a ten round bout in Detroit on Saturday night.

Harry Willis of New Orleans won the negro heavyweight championship when he was given a decision over Sam Langford of Boston in a fifteen round bout staged in Tulsa, Okla.

Hubbell Signs with Giants.

Secretary John B. Foster of the Giants announces that Wilbur W. Hubbell, a right handed pitcher, has signed with New York. Pitcher Fred Tracy signed at the end of the playing season. Hubbell finished the season with McGraw after doing yeoman service for the Toronto club most of the season. President J. J. McCaffrey of the Maple Leafs believes Hubbell ripe for major league company.

HARVARD STAVES OFF DEFEAT BY GREAT RALLY AGAINST TIGERS

Badly Battered Football Team in Spectacular Battle Makes it Tie Score

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 9.—When the Palmer Stadium was bubbling over on Saturday afternoon with riotous enthusiasm over an impending Princeton victory, Harvard's battered football eleven rose on the wave of a desperate rally and fought the Tigers back in an irresistible drive which carried the crimson on up even terms with the orange and black and ended one of the most spectacular gridiron battles of the season with a 10 to 10 score.

For more than three periods Princeton outplayed Harvard, and the crowd of 35,000 was overjoyed at the rejuvenation of the Tiger team.

In the closing minutes Harvard played as only a team can play when it faces defeat. With fury they rushed on to ward Princeton's goal line and finally crushed Princeton's hope of victory when Felton tossed a forward pass to the fleet Eddie Casey, who galloped over the line with a touchdown. The Princeton crowd was shocked into silence. A dead depressing calm came over the great crowd as Church kicked the goal and tied the score.

Leg Broken.

New York, Nov. 9.—In the most spectacular game of football ever seen at the Polo Grounds, Dartmouth yesterday defeated Pennsylvania 20 to 19, but lost her star back, Jim Robertson, as the price of victory. The great punter of the big green team was carried off the field early in the second period, after completing a brilliant end run, and it was found that his right leg had been broken just above the ankle. Coach Bob Spears gloomily announced that his prize player was out of the game for the rest of the season.

The game was a sensational seesaw affair, with never a dull moment, and presented the astonishing spectacle of two absolutely evenly matched eleven making three touchdowns each, and deciding the issue by the number of goals which followed these scores. Dartmouth was able to tally twice and Pennsylvania only once out of three chances and this single point proved the margin of victory.
