ALL DAY FIGHT WITH CONVICTS

Armed Prisoners Subdued By Guards, But Some Who Escaped Are Still Free

(Canadian Press)
Rawlins, Wyoming, Oct. 14.—Quiet was restored last night in the penitentiary here, where a battle raged all yesterday between armed convicts and the prison guards, whose numbers had been depleted by the sending out of prisoners in search of prisoners. The convicts were subdued and locked in their cells. Early reports of the killing of several men inside of the penitentiary were not confirmed today. A little before midnight, Marshall Hayes returned to Rawlins after the man burnt in the hills, bringing one of the escaped men, whom he shot and wounded. The man was placed in the prison hospital. Two more of twenty who escaped on Saturday were recaptured yesterday, reducing the number of Saturday's fugitives at liberty to nine. The men who escaped yesterday were led by Antoni Pazo, a life term murderer, who a few months ago, in the prison dining room, seized a knife and almost disemboweled a fellow prisoner.

BRITISH COLUMBIA MEN HERE TO SEE COMMISSION WORK

Sent Out to Study Methods, They Will Also go South to Galveston

Three members of the British Columbia commission on legislation relating to municipal government arrived in St. John today, drawn here by the fact that St. John was the first city in Canada to adopt the commission form of city government. The city of Vancouver, in a plebiscite recently approved of the principle of municipal government, is now waiting to learn more about its workings before endeavoring to put the idea into effect. An investigation will be used for the purpose and other cities and towns in the province are also considering the change. A provincial commission was appointed to investigate thoroughly the operation of the new form of government in other cities and the members of this commission are now on a trip of personal inspection. The chairman, W. H. Keary of New Westminster, is following a different route from the others and will not visit St. John. Those who have arrived here are the secretary, James Morton of Vancouver, A. E. Bell of Vancouver and H. A. McLean of Victoria. They will remain in St. John until tomorrow. The commission spent a month visiting the municipalities of British Columbia to learn what changes and reforms are desired before starting on their travels. Since then they have visited Des Moines, where the commission form of government is in operation and the Canadian cities which have adopted the form of control method. From St. John they will go to Galveston, Texas.

NO CHURCH WEDDING

Philadelphia Bride and Groom Are Both Atheists

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—Declaring belief in no religion, Miss Evelyn Baxter Nasson, a pretty girl of twenty, prominent in local society, insisted on the performance of a civil ceremony when wed to Doctor Joseph Ince, an eye specialist of Budapest, Hungary, Mayor Rudolph Blankenburg of that city. "We are both atheists," said Miss Nasson, the daughter of a literary man, "and why should we go through a foolish ritual when neither of us has religious convictions. Besides that, we are going to live in Hungary, where only a civil ceremony is recognized. My view may awaken sleepy and unprogressive Philadelphia, but I can't help that. We believe that a civil marriage will bind us together for life as successfully as a religious ceremony." The pair met when Miss Nasson was studying abroad. The marriage was performed at the home of the bride's parents, No. 4503 Spruce street.

THIRTY THOUSAND IN COLUMBUS DAY PARADE IN BOSTON

Boston, Oct. 13.—Boston celebrated its third Columbus Day yesterday with one of the biggest and most cosmopolitan parades the city has ever seen. Thirty thousand people, of many nationalities, were in the long marching line, which started at 11 o'clock and wound its splendid way through Back Bay, down town and South End streets and squares. Chinese, Armenians, Italians, and other foreign born joined with native Americans in honoring the discoverer of America. Even the world's series added Boston Columbus Day, in spite of the National Baseball Commission's original schedule. Last Wednesday's game at Fenway Park above the schedule up one day, so yesterday's game fell to the local grounds instead of Manhattan. This gave managers advertise as an "added feature." And the best part of it was that the baseball game and the big parade did not clash, the latter being in the morning and the former this afternoon. In spite of lowering skies, suburbanites came by thousands to the city to swell the resident population of parade spectators. Brigadier General Charles Plaf was chief marshal and Colonel James H. Smyth, inspector general, M. V. M., chief of staff. Governor Foss and staff reviewed the parade from a stand on the Tremont street mall of the Common, midway between West and Boylston streets. Mayor Fitzgerald rode on horseback with the staff from the start to this stand. The Knights of Columbus, Holy Name Societies and Spanish War veterans were out in force.

MR. McLELLAN HOME TODAY FROM BOSTON WITH NEW IDEAS

With many new ideas regarding the operation of his department, Commissioner H. R. McLellan returned to the city today after a week spent studying the operations of the police and fire departments and the building laws of Boston. Mr. McLellan intended to visit some of the other New England cities but found enough in Boston to keep him busy from the time he arrived until he left for home. Speaking to a Times reporter, the commissioner said that his strongest impression was regarding the efficiency and discipline of the police and fire departments. He found them headed by the best type of men with organizations under them in a remarkably high state of efficiency. He made a careful study of the use of automobile trucks for fire apparatus and as a result of this is favorably impressed with the idea of their adoption in St. John as soon as the city's funds will permit of the investment. In the police department, Boston, he says, has one of the finest bodies of men

BLAMES GIRL AS FORGER OF PRIVATE CHECKS

Eighteen Year Old Roxey Wells Is Arrested in New Jersey

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 14.—Miss Roxey Wells, a winsome eighteen-year-old girl, arrested here in jail on complaint of Frank N. Hoffstad, millionaire banker and prosed steel manufacturer of New York and Pittsburgh, who accuses her of defrauding him out of $30,000 by forging his signature to a large number of checks. Miss Wells, who is also known as Lola Glazer, lived in and about Pittsburgh for several months and made the acquaintance of wealthy young men of that city. Through them it is believed she obtained a signature of Mr. Hoffstad and began a series of forgeries. All the fraudulent checks were drawn on the German National Bank, Pittsburgh, of which Mr. Hoffstad is president. Sixteen were in the possession of the bank account, that more than a score of private checks and one hundred and thirty were cashed and returned to him after cautioning him that they were not his. The checks apparently were verified by him, making it easy to have them cashed. A private detective was put on the case as soon as Mr. Hoffstad became suspicious. This must have been suspected by Miss Wells as she disappeared from Pittsburgh at about that time. She was not heard of again until last week, when she made an effort to cash a check in a local store. The firm refused the amount, $27,500, and notified the police. Wells was caught with all the large stores in the city, notifying them to hold the girl if she appeared. The girl was arrested and held at the department store and was arrested.

TURKEY BIDS THE POWERS TO LET HER ALONE

(Canadian Press)
Constantinople, Oct. 14.—The Turkish government says it will carry out reforms in Macedonia, but declines to allow the powers to intervene in the question. In reply to the powers was handed to the Austro-Hungarian ambassador here this morning. London, Oct. 14.—The Montenegro troops lost 100 killed and wounded in their attack on the town of Delyopolje according to the official report of the Serbian army. The fighting was particularly heavy and the Turkish troops captured several Turkish machine guns, and then with troops crossed the river Boyana. The Matsovi tribesmen in the neighborhood of Sutare have joined the Montenegrins. Brigade, Servia, Oct. 14.—A body of Turkish troops crossed the Serbian front near Vranya, this morning and attacked the Serbian position. Fighting was still in progress when the message was dispatched.

BASEBALL ROW OVER THE MONEY

Boston, Oct. 14.—The money split up by the players is causing much friction. It was said that the players of both teams indirectly requested the commission to give them 60 per cent. of the big gate money taken on Saturday in addition to their share of the four games including the famous battle on Wednesday. In other words the players cannot understand why they should not have the money out of five games inasmuch as the tie officially counted for nothing. Just when this request on behalf of the Giants and Red Sox could not be learned, but the fact remains that the commission promptly turned down the proposition. Then the players made another demand, so the story goes. They wanted the right to play an exhibition game after the series either in Cincinnati or Chicago, the receipts to be devoted to a position to make an immediate reply the commission will be denied, it is understood, and should there be an attempt to flout the commission the players will find themselves in serious trouble.

Big Southpaw May Be Opposed By Collins in Game Today

(Canadian Press)
New York, Oct. 14.—The first crisis in the struggle for the world's baseball championship was reached today when the New York Giants and the Boston Red Sox prepared for the sixth game of the series. A victory today would send the championship to Boston and the perfection of the National League pennant winner went to the Polo grounds to see their favorite pitcher, Jim Wood, pitch. The five games played thus far, Boston has won three and needs but one more victory; New York had a single victory and the mixed satisfaction of one tie game and a no-hit game by the Giants, and every remaining game. Although the sky was overcast this morning, the prediction of the day was fair. There were plenty among the Giants' supporters who expected confidently to see the team embrace the one chance left. "We'll be up here again Wednesday and best you fellows out in the deciding game!" was their slogan. Many of the Giants' supporters were just about down and out, and were pointed to as a reason why Boston hopes of ending the series today stood a good chance of being shattered. Boston's own "come back" of 1903 when, with three games gone, the team found itself and took four straight from Pittsburgh was cited as a precedent and a basis for high hopes. The attitude of the big delegation of Boston fans here for the game was entirely different. On the basis of results accomplished they believed that this day would see the triumph of the Red Sox over the rival managers. "Everything is apparently in our favor and of course we expect to win," he said. "The men believe they have the Giants on the run, but even a defeat today would leave us two or three games in front of the champions."
