

MAMMAS

Successful in making good they differ from the E. B. make Good Matches every are-up occurs at times and stone in the air, the in-satisfied with ...

MATCHES.

a meeting in Temperance hall last Janary at which he took off his coat in anticipation of trouble between himself and the doctor.

Graham Campbell said that he was secretary of the Lodge No. 1429, from which the doctor was expelled on the 8th of January last. He knew the doctor's handwriting. Several letters and prescriptions were then put in which the witness swore were written by the doctor. On the 8th of March last there was a fire in his store, and by "Fire Friend" he supposed the intention of the writer was to make out that he (Campbell) was guilty of arson. Another pamphlet addressed "I. Walsh, Orange Boodle," was put in. On the corner was written "Return to Father MacAfee or blackmailer Campbell."

The witness was being examined by Mr. Helmecken as the Times went to press.

MORE SEIZURES REPORTED.

Sealers Shelby and C. D. Rand Said to Have Been Seized.

R. P. Rithet & Co. received a letter from Hakodate, Japan, yesterday, announcing that the schooner Umbria had a catch of 1400 sealskins and the Anaconda 257. Captain Turpel received a letter from the Sealee Turpel, dated May 16. At writing the Turpel had 1000 skins, and she reports the Mermaid with 1200, Vera 700, Enterprise 700 and Car-otta 600, Cox 550.

It is reported that the steam schooner Shelby, of Victoria, and the schooner C.
D. Rand, of Vancouver, have been seized for violating the sealing regulations and towed to Sitka. It is supposed that the vessels will be transferred to the custody of H. M. S. Phœnix. It was impossible to get any particulars or to trace the news to its exact source, but the story is generally believed by sealing men. The report was brought by the Topeka which was at the outer harbour yesterday for a time on her way from Alaska to the Sound. The steamer Boscovitz reports the arrival at different points of a party of Indians who had left sealing schooners at Sitka and came 400 miles in their canoes. It is said that the Shelby was warned, but was later caught sealing.

Clayquot and Kyoquot have been designed as the points on the west coast at which customs officers will be stationed to seal up the spears of the schoons to Behring sea. The officers, who will be residents at the points named, have not yet been selected. The schoons Saucy Lass and Beatrice will be sent away. They go to the west coast after their Indians, sailing probably tomorrow. It will view likely a few days before they leave the coast for the sea.
The Indian schooners C. C. Perkins and Puritan, of Neah Bay, were seized on Thursday off Cape Flattery by the U.
S. Cutter Grant. They had been sealing, but were lying in a gale.

ON HIS WAY EAST.

Prof. W. F. King Returns from the Alaska Boundary Survey.

Professor W. F. King, head of the Canadian boundary survey party, W.
Simpson, his secretary, and H. N. Topey, photographer of the party, arrived down from the north last evening on the steamer Barbara Boscovitz. They are in their way east, and will leave overnight for Seattle. They came down from the C. P. R. just as soon as they could.
They came down to Port Simpson on the steamer schooner Thistle, and caught the Boscovitz at that point. Professor King placed the different parties at work in the lines mapped out early in the season, and when he left they were going head. An effort will be made to complete the work this year, and quite likely with success. Mr. Topley secured several hundred sealskins at different points. Some of the American party were seen at Pyramid harbor, where the steamer Haasler was at anchor. They were already busy carrying their lines onward.

Prof. King will return from the east this fall. He will go up the coast and look up the different parties at points of meeting which have been agreed upon.

Some idea of the amount of business being done in electric circles may be gleaned from the fact that one company, the General Electric, since January last, $94, have sold over 1,000 electric railway motors, and about 13,000 horse power in power generators and some 1,000 horse power in lighting apparatus and upward of 1,000,000 incandescent lamps, or in all about $1,000,000 worth of apparatus. And this during a period of great financial depression.

It quickly cures

Cuts, Burns,
Corns, Bruises,
Chilblains, Bunions,

Cracks between the Toes, Scalds, Piles,
Swellings, Ulcers,
Stiff Joints, Old Sores,

Inflammation of all kinds,
Lame Back, Pimples,
Rheumatism, Pustules,
Caked Breasts, Eruptions

Diseased Tendons,
Contracted Muscles,
And all Lameness and Soreness.

sale Agents for B.C.

HAWAII SPREADING OUT.

Formal Possession Taken of Necker Island by the Hawaiian Government.

Minister King Led Expedition—Includes of Trip—Description of the Island.

The Honolulu Star of May 31, received by the Arawa last evening, gives the following account of the "conquest" of the Necker island by Hawaii:

Thursday evening, about 7 o'clock, the Iwaloa, under the command of the Hon. Minister King, left the city for Necker island. The Iwaloa, a small steamer, was accompanied by a few warships and a number of extraordinary men. The expedition was conducted in a most successful manner, the island being taken without a shot being fired. The Iwaloa, after a short stay, returned to Honolulu, and the island was formally taken possession of by the Hawaiian government.

The Iwaloa, a small steamer, was accompanied by a few warships and a number of extraordinary men. The expedition was conducted in a most successful manner, the island being taken without a shot being fired.

The Iwaloa, after a short stay, returned to Honolulu, and the island was formally taken possession of by the Hawaiian government.

The Iwaloa, a small steamer, was
accompanied by a few warships and a number of extraordinary men. The
expedition was conducted in a most
successful manner, the island being
taken without a shot being fired.

The Iwaloa, after a short stay, re-
turned to Honolulu, and the island
was formally taken possession of by
the Hawaiian government.

The Iwaloa, a small steamer, was
accompanied by a few warships and a number of extraordinary men. The
expedition was conducted in a most
successful manner, the island being
taken without a shot being fired.

The Iwaloa, after a short stay, re-
turned to Honolulu, and the island
was formally taken possession of by
the Hawaiian government.

The Iwaloa, a small steamer, was
accompanied by a few warships and a number of extraordinary men. The
expedition was conducted in a most
successful manner, the island being
taken without a shot being fired.

The Iwaloa, after a short stay, re-
turned to Honolulu, and the island
was formally taken possession of by
the Hawaiian government.

The Iwaloa, a small steamer, was
accompanied by a few warships and a number of extraordinary men. The
expedition was conducted in a most
successful manner, the island being
taken without a shot being fired.

The Iwaloa, after a short stay, re-
turned to Honolulu, and the island
was formally taken possession of by
the Hawaiian government.

The Iwaloa, a small steamer, was
accompanied by a few warships and a number of extraordinary men. The
expedition was conducted in a most
successful manner, the island being
taken without a shot being fired.

The Iwaloa, after a short stay, re-
turned to Honolulu, and the island
was formally taken possession of by
the Hawaiian government.

The Iwaloa, a small steamer, was
accompanied by a few warships and a number of extraordinary men. The
expedition was conducted in a most
successful manner, the island being
taken without a shot being fired.

The Iwaloa, after a short stay, re-
turned to Honolulu, and the island
was formally taken possession of by
the Hawaiian government.

The Iwaloa, a small steamer, was
accompanied by a few warships and a number of extraordinary men. The
expedition was conducted in a most
successful manner, the island being
taken without a shot being fired.

The Iwaloa, after a short stay, re-
turned to Honolulu, and the island
was formally taken possession of by
the Hawaiian government.

The Iwaloa, a small steamer, was
accompanied by a few warships and a number of extraordinary men. The
expedition was conducted in a most
successful manner, the island being
taken without a shot being fired.

religious and charitable efforts. A cultivated taste for music of the highest type further united the Bishop and Mrs. Sillitoe, both being exceptionally accomplished musicians. Hence oftentimes in connection with the New Westminster Choral Society and other musical institutions they afforded pleasurable and instructive entertainment to those among whom they lived, thus also aiding most effectively many a good cause. Their joint musical talents were also especially devoted to the service of the sanctuary, and by their aid and under their guidance the cathedral church of Holy Trinity, New Westminster, has become especially noted for its choir and for musical services reverently and devoutly rendered.

Thus linked in congenial useful work, the married life of the Bishop and Mrs.
Sillitoe was throughout exceptionally happy, and the heartfelt sympathy of all who knew her will therefore be extended to the latter in this hour of trial and bereavement. Dr. Sillitoe was, it may be mentioned to recur to facts and figures—consecrated Bishop of New Westminster in 1879, since when he has constantly proved himself one of the most energetic and able prelates of the Church of England and greatly developed and extended the work of the church on the lower mainland. His appointment was, as usual, followed by the confident and hearty welcome of the community of the distinguished honor of the degree of Doctor of Divinity, and only last year, when the bishop took a very active part in the consolidation of the Church of England in Canada, he received from the university of Trinity College, Toronto, the degree of Doctor of Civil Law. The bishop was also a distinguished Free Mason, taking ever the strongest interest in the work of friendly societies and in this connection delivered the memorable inaugural address in New Westminster in the objects of Pythianism. He was tolerant and broadminded in his public views, and although he deemed it his duty to abstain from interference in all matters essentially partisan in politics, his sympathies went out strongly towards the cause of the unity of the empire under some scheme of imperial federation.

It is hardly too much to add that Dr.
Sillitoe sacrificed years, that might otherwise have been those of an active and useful life on earth, to the conscientious performance of his sacred duties.

The bishop's death was a great loss to the community, and his death was a great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

THE AUSTRALIAN DELEGATES

To the Intercolonial Conference at Ottawa Arrive on Steamship Arawa.

Met by a Delegation of B. C. Board of Trade and Welcome
to Canada.

The delegates from Australia and the sister colonies of New Zealand and Tasmania to the Ottawa conference arrived on the steamship Arawa, which made fast to the outer dock at 8 o'clock last evening. The delegation consists of the following gentlemen: Sir Henry Rickson, Victoria; Hon. N. Fitzgibbon, Victoria
and Tasmania; Hon. S. Fraser, Victoria; Hon.
F. Sutor, New South Wales; Hon.
A. J. Thynne, Queensland; Hon. Lee
Smith, New Zealand. A reception committee of the British Columbia board of trade, composed of Vice-President Bennett, Secretary Elworthy, and Messrs.
Ridder, Cannon, Ellis, Todd, Leiser and Templeman, met the visitors in the cabin of the ship and tendered them an informal but hearty welcome to Canada.

Vice-President Bennett, in a brief speech, welcomed the delegates on what was probably their first visit to Canada.
He assured them that the citizens of Victoria took a deep interest in the task they had to perform at the Ottawa conference, and, while recognizing the difficulties in the way, they wished them every success. It was the earnest desire of the board of trade that the delegates should remain over for one day, especially as they could not leave Vancouver on their eastern journey before Tuesday, in order that an opportunity would be afforded to show them the city and harbor of the province.

He extended to the delegates a right royal welcome to Canada.
Hon. F. Sutor, of New South Wales, on behalf of his colleagues, thanked the committee for their generous welcome, and that that committee would be attained by making fair proposals to each other. They had enjoyed the trip and appreciated the kindness of the invitation, but regretted that it would be impossible to remain in the city for more than a few days.

Hon. N. Fitzgibbon proposed "Prosperity to British Columbia and its capital."
The delegates had the most hearty good wishes for the welfare of the Dominion underwent many anxious exertions in the prominent place in the empire. Canada had resisted many tempting offers, and the loyalty of its people gave it a high rank in the esteem of every one taking an interest in the empire.

It is hardly too much to add that Dr.
Sillitoe sacrificed years, that might otherwise have been those of an active and
useful life on earth, to the conscientious
performance of his sacred duties.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

THE AUSTRALIAN DELEGATES

To the Intercolonial Conference at Ottawa Arrive on Steam-
ship Arawa.

Met by a Delegation of B. C. Board
of Trade and Welcome
to Canada.

The delegates from Australia and the
sister colonies of New Zealand and Tas-
mania to the Ottawa conference arrived
on the steamship Arawa, which made
fast to the outer dock at 8 o'clock last
evening. The delegation consists of the following gentlemen: Sir Henry Rickson,
Victoria; Hon. N. Fitzgibbon, Victoria
and Tasmania; Hon. S. Fraser, Victoria; Hon.
F. Sutor, New South Wales; Hon.
A. J. Thynne, Queensland; Hon. Lee
Smith, New Zealand. A reception committee of the British Columbia board of
trade, composed of Vice-President Bennett, Secretary Elworthy, and Messrs.
Ridder, Cannon, Ellis, Todd, Leiser and
Templeman, met the visitors in the cabin
of the ship and tendered them an informal but hearty welcome to Canada.

Vice-President Bennett, in a brief
speech, welcomed the delegates on what
was probably their first visit to Canada.
He assured them that the citizens of Victoria took a deep interest in the task
they had to perform at the Ottawa conference, and, while recognizing the difficulties in the way, they wished them
every success. It was the earnest desire of the board of trade that the delegates should remain over for one day,
especially as they could not leave Vancouver on their eastern journey before Tuesday, in order that an opportunity
would be afforded to show them the
city and harbor of the province.

He extended to the delegates a right royal welcome to Canada.
Hon. F. Sutor, of New South Wales,
on behalf of his colleagues, thanked the
committee for their generous welcome,
and that that committee would be attained by making fair proposals to each other. They had enjoyed the trip and appreciated the kindness of the invitation, but
regretted that it would be impossible to
remain in the city for more than a few days.

Hon. N. Fitzgibbon proposed "Prosperity to British Columbia and its capital."
The delegates had the most hearty good
wishes for the welfare of the Dominion
underwent many anxious exertions in the
prominent place in the empire. Canada
had resisted many tempting offers, and
the loyalty of its people gave it a high
rank in the esteem of every one taking
an interest in the empire.

It is hardly too much to add that Dr.
Sillitoe sacrificed years, that might otherwise have been those of an active and
useful life on earth, to the conscientious
performance of his sacred duties.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

THE AUSTRALIAN DELEGATES

To the Intercolonial Conference at Ottawa Arrive on Steam-
ship Arawa.

Met by a Delegation of B. C. Board
of Trade and Welcome
to Canada.

The delegates from Australia and the
sister colonies of New Zealand and Tas-
mania to the Ottawa conference arrived
on the steamship Arawa, which made
fast to the outer dock at 8 o'clock last
evening. The delegation consists of the following gentlemen: Sir Henry Rickson,
Victoria; Hon. N. Fitzgibbon, Victoria
and Tasmania; Hon. S. Fraser, Victoria; Hon.
F. Sutor, New South Wales; Hon.
A. J. Thynne, Queensland; Hon. Lee
Smith, New Zealand. A reception committee of the British Columbia board of
trade, composed of Vice-President Bennett, Secretary Elworthy, and Messrs.
Ridder, Cannon, Ellis, Todd, Leiser and
Templeman, met the visitors in the cabin
of the ship and tendered them an informal but hearty welcome to Canada.

Vice-President Bennett, in a brief
speech, welcomed the delegates on what
was probably their first visit to Canada.
He assured them that the citizens of Victoria took a deep interest in the task
they had to perform at the Ottawa conference, and, while recognizing the difficulties in the way, they wished them
every success. It was the earnest desire of the board of trade that the delegates should remain over for one day,
especially as they could not leave Vancouver on their eastern journey before
Tuesday, in order that an opportunity
would be afforded to show them the
city and harbor of the province.

He extended to the delegates a right royal welcome to Canada.
Hon. F. Sutor, of New South Wales,
on behalf of his colleagues, thanked the
committee for their generous welcome,
and that that committee would be attained by making fair proposals to each other. They had enjoyed the trip and appreciated the kindness of the invitation, but
regretted that it would be impossible to
remain in the city for more than a few days.

Hon. N. Fitzgibbon proposed "Prosperity to British Columbia and its capital."
The delegates had the most hearty good
wishes for the welfare of the Dominion
underwent many anxious exertions in the
prominent place in the empire. Canada
had resisted many tempting offers, and
the loyalty of its people gave it a high
rank in the esteem of every one taking
an interest in the empire.

It is hardly too much to add that Dr.
Sillitoe sacrificed years, that might otherwise have been those of an active and
useful life on earth, to the conscientious
performance of his sacred duties.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

The bishop's death was a great loss to
the community, and his death was a
great loss to the community.

THE AUSTRALIAN DELEGATES

To the Intercolonial Conference at Ottawa Arrive on Steam-
ship Arawa.

Met by a Delegation of B. C. Board
of Trade and Welcome
to Canada.