Attorney O'Reilly, the lawyer who accompanied Evelyn Thaw on her first visit to her husband at Matteawan was served with a subpeona to-day by the prosecution.

Several witnesses testified that they believed Thaw to be rational. When O'Reilly arrived later in the afternoon he said if he was asked about Thaw's alleged threat against his wife's life, he would plead that he was Thaw's counsel. This afternoon Attorney Clark submitted a brief in an effort to get on record Thaw's threat against his wife. The efforts of the prosecution will be directed toward this point until it is fully disposed of.
