I did think it was possible that Deputy Sheriff would be paid; but he was paid and I responsible for it too.

These matters are decided by a majority of the Council. I cannot under my oath of office say, my inability to prevent Deputy Whitehead's appointment, was caused by the opposition received from my colleagues.

It became generally known by my Deputy that excess had been made by other Deputies, and I, as head of the Department, had not power to prevent their getting paid, I think it, when known would be a strong inducement to exceed their orders, as in the case of heads to make a paying job.

McClellan called attention to the substance of communication in the Freeman of 12th inst. and to enquire of the Surveyor Genl. if he had anything of this kind.

Willmot was glad it had been brought up. It was in the morning and he took it to the Land Office. He thought Mr. Gowan ought called upon.

Surveyor General said he knew something of the matter, so far as O'Keleher was concerned, and all about it. A complaint was made by O'Keleher that a lot of land on which his had settled, had been taken from him, and a man named Horsford. He had brought under the attention of the Government, but all the answer he got was that he did nothing, as the land had been granted.

Jordan and I went to the spot; found 7 had been cleared by O'Keleher the original, and the land paid for by him under the Land Office. The land was granted to R. Horsford, and the clearing was made, and the barn built by Michael O'Keleher, also. The line between the two lots ran between the house and barn; these were two 50 acre acres were all on the 50 acre lot granted.

O'Keleher owned both but one was granted to him. The 50 acre lot granted to Horsford for labor by O'Keleher under the direction of J. Jordan, Esq., Labor Commissioner. His was, when I was there, occupying both lots and did not give them, or either of them, up to the Horsford.

The Labor Act Commissioner pointed out the road, where the work had been done, and that it had been faithfully done. I don't know long since it was done. All parties there, O'Keleher and all agreed about the clearing, etc.

This is my report to the Government. It is a formal report of the Surveyor General, to the effect that the lands claimed by O'Keleher, and by him; also that the Road-work to pay had been done, under Commissioner Jordan it had been performed by O'Keleher; he had erected a house and barn on the

this report is endorsed an order of the Land Office that a grant of £12 10s. should be paid, before giving deed of land to O'Keleher.

The Surveyor General stated, Horsford to understand, he would take, if Government issued such an order, but which he has since taken.

state of the thing was, that Horsford got a ticket; and a grant was issued to Horsford all the while O'Keleher, knowing, that was paid for; kept wondering why his not issue. When he found that the deed issued to Horsford, he took it to heart and brother allages died from the effects of these here said:— collect the transaction very well. The circumstance in the beginning is, that O'Keleher, who had a grant of one half never appears to have applied for the, although, he improved on it. There application, or knowledge of improvement own Land Office, and no approval in his the Commissioner, Mr. Jordan, had no to give the work for the Lot not applied the Horsfords applied, under McKee's they selected two half lots, this being application was refused, in Council, 1853. They applied again, and were refused, in March, 1853. The objection there was no reason why they should the original land on the Washademoak, by this time, was not vacant. R. Horsford a Certificate from John Davidson, that John McKee had made improve the land, which had been located to him.

ence of that certificate, the petition was with, in Council, May, 1853, and the Grant was issued. Up to the time of issuing there was nothing whatever to lead us that O'Keleher had made any improvement any work in payment. I do not at during the twenty-five years I have Crown Land Office, any Grant has for land which was known to have been by another in the smallest degree compensation. There was a certificate of the performance of the labor, to the Office, but it was after the deed issued, and the Department very retted to find that the Lot had been another, when O'Keleher had improved present Surveyor General has taken to try and get it arranged."
