MARGUERITE'S WEEKLY CHAT.

There are all sorts of occupations open to girls in these days and no longer may any one sigh, "I've got nothing to do," or be bored under any circumstances, in fact it stamps a girl right away if she makes any statement like that.

There are the opportunities to take up new industries and there is always the chance to go in for the old ways of earning one's living, such as positions in stores, housework, etc. It may even come, if the war goes on that we will be asked to take places like these from a patriotic sense of duty as the British girls have. Really except for personal losses and anxiety about our friends the war has not come home to many in this city. When our St. John girls are working on night shifts in the munition factories, driving street cars or cabs, doing farm work, actual hard digging and planting, then we may be able to feel that we are really doing our share in the Empire's time of need, and releasing a man for service in the army. One society in our city is doing such a work and doing it cheerfully and gladly—the ushers at the Imperial Theatre which has been looked after by the Young Women's Patriotic Society ever since May 1st.

When we are asked to contribute time or work for patriotic purpose, should we not remember this, that not one of us has actually lost a night's sleep or any of our bodily comforts, and think of what the soldiers go through for us and our safety? Should we hesitate at making a pound of candy or patronizing a tea or sale or knitting day and night for the Red Cross or Soldiers' Comforts?

A circular of announcements from the Women's Canadian Club has been sent to members. The important notices are as follows:

Annual meeting of the St. John Women's Canadian Club, in St. David's schoolroom, Sydney street, on Monday evening, October 30th, at eight o'clock.

The meeting will begin with an address by Major C. R. Gessie, medical officer of the 25th Kiltie Battalion (late of 10th Canadian Battalion), on "Surgical Help at the Battlefield." Followed by short reports and election of officers and members of the executive committee.

Miss Kathleen Burke of the Scottish Women's Hospitals, in Serbia.

Saloniki, Corsica and France, will speak of this splendid work on Wednesday evening, November 8th, in the Opera House. Her reputation as a charming lecturer is worldwide.

It is hoped that an address will be given in the near future by Captain Hon. Rupert Guinness, R. N.

The Marchioness of Aberdeen will address the club soon after Christmas on "Reconstruction After the War."

The Canadian Club are also assisting the fund for sailors' relief.

Y. W. P. A.

The regular meeting of the Young Women's Patriotic Association will be held this evening at 8.15 in the Loyal Order of Moose rooms, Union street.

Major Legere of the 165th Battalion will address the meeting and arrangements will be made for the 165th Battalion concert.

Valcartier Chapter, I. O. O. E.

A meeting of this chapter was held at the home of Miss Doris Sayre, Queen Square, Miss R. McAvity, the regent, presiding. It was decided to go on making hospital shirts for the chapter did last winter. Each member will make two hospital shirts a month and provide one pair of socks. The canteen at the Soldiers' Club will be taken when needed.

Irish Women to Fight Alcohol.

"That this meeting, representing tens of thousands of the women of Belfast and districts, earnestly appeals to His Majesty's Government to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drink during the war and for six months thereafter in order to prevent the criminal waste and the expense which delays victory; to hasten the coming of a righteous and lasting peace, and to safeguard the homes and children of the nation; and resolves that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the members of His Majesty's Government and the Irish Parliamentary representatives."

This resolution was passed at an enormous open air meeting held in Belfast, Ireland in September, following a women's procession and demonstration in which between five and six thousand women took part. Belfast papers to hand, explain that the spectacle of a woman's procession in the interest of temperance was novel in Belfast and was regarded as a spontaneous and timely expression of the feeling of Belfast womanhood towards a question which up to two years ago possessed only social, moral and religious significance.

Since assumed a political and indeed a national significance. The organization of the arrangements fell to the war-time council on drink and national efficiency. The organization which is otherwise described as "The Women's Patriotic Crusade for Prohibition during the war" has as its influential presidents, the Duchess of Abercorn, the Countess of Shaftesbury, the Countess of Gosford, the Countess of Antrim and the Countess of Kilmore.

All along the line of march, spectators lined both sides of the streets, and gave the marchers an ovation as they passed. Several bands took part. The procession was headed by mounted police followed by a string of motor cars carrying the speakers, then came a number of girl graduates and undergraduates in their gowns, a contingent of munitions girls in overalls, nurses in uniform and groups of Alities in costume. Nurses from the city hospitals walked in the procession while a number of workers from the Cripples' Institute rode. Practically every walk in the city was represented in the procession. On reaching Ormeau Park, the procession and hundreds of others gathered around the platforms from which speeches were given.

Some interesting statistics were given by the Countess of Kilmore and the Bishop of Down.

DRINK HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST

Says you really feel clean, sweet and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to wake up with a coated tongue, foul breath or a dull, dizzy headache; or, if your meals sour and turn into gas and acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you.

Tomorrow morning, immediately upon arising, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is intended to first neutralize and then wash out of your stomach, liver, kidneys and thirty feet of intestines all the indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal.

Those subject to sick headaches, backache, bilious attacks, constipation or any form of stomach trouble, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store and begin enjoying this morning inside-bath. It is said that men and women who try this become enthusiastic and keep it up daily. It is a splendid health measure for it is more important to keep clean and pure on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing disease, while the bowel pores do.

The principle of bathing inside is not new, as millions of people practice it. Just as hot water and soap cleanse the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing disease, while the bowel pores do.

Uncle Dick's
Corner.

TODAY'S LITTLE JOKE.

How It Happened.

"O-o-o-o-h! Bo-o-o-o-o-o-o!"

As the children wall rang through the house the anxious mother sprang to her feet. Rushing into the hall, she met her little daughter coming in from the garden and carrying a broken doll by the leg.

"What's the matter, darling?" she asked tenderly.

"O-o-o-o-h, m-o-o-o-o-o-o!" howled the child, "Willie's broken my doll!"

"The naughty boy! How did he do it?"

"I—I hit him on the head with it!" was the slow response.

BIRTHDAY GREETING.

Uncle Dick wishes many happy returns to the following kiddies who will be celebrating their birthdays today:

Hannah Slipp, Hampstead.
Mary Selby, 59 Crown St.
Doreen Turner, 98 St. James St.

FREDERICTON BOY SCOUTS.

At the last weekly meeting of the Fredericton Boy Scouts, held in the Assembly Room of the High School, Miss Stewart continued her course of lectures on First Aid, which proved most instructive to the boys.

The recently appointed president, occupied the chair, and after the scout fees had been paid, and the treasurer's report heard, Sterling MacFarlane was nominated to the position of secretary, following which more buglers were selected and allowed to join the premising band now possessed by the troop.

EXTRACTS FROM THE MAIL BAG.

Evandale, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—

I am sending the drawing that I drew with my left hand, and it took me a long time to draw it. It is hard work to draw with my left hand, and so I tried hard to win a prize. I am in the fourth grade.

Your nephew,
Fred Paul.

Kiddies Writing to Her.

Collins, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—

Since I last wrote to you there have been five more of the kiddies who belong to the Corner written to me. Lloyd Hooper sent me a nice little pin and handkerchief and Myrtle Malory, Flossie Poshay, Myrtle Cox, and Margaret Slocum have written to me. I was very pleased to receive all of them and wish to thank all very much, as I have not been able to answer all yet. I have read both the books you sent me and enjoyed them very much. I am sending in my list of names beginning with the letter P. I have now got a hundred and seventy, I looked in quite a few different books and papers to find them. Papa took me for a drive last Sunday, and we saw a moose. Now I will close for this time.

From your niece,
Gladys McKnight.

A New Niece.

Florenceville, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—

I thought I would write to you as I enjoy reading the other letters.

I am a little girl nine years of age, my name is Lela Vivian Lamoreaux. I am a farmer's little girl. I have two brothers and one sister, their names are Lynn Lamoreaux, Arthur Lamoreaux and Vera Lamoreaux. I go to school every day and am in the first reader. My teacher's name is Miss Macgregor. I enjoy cutting out the pictures. Well as it is all I know, I will close for this time.

Your niece,
Lela Lamoreaux.

Has Nice Pets.

Coldbrook, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—

Thank you for birthday greetings. I have been spending the summer in Coldbrook. I came from Bermuda in July, and expect to go back soon. I attend the Bermuda High School. It opened on September 25th, so I am missing school. I am in the first form and expect to pass into the second form at Christmas. I have a little dog and a big one, two kittens and a parrot. We will leave them all here, but Laura our parrot. I would like to come to Coldbrook next summer, but do not know if I can. I will close now and hope I may hear from you again, if I come back to Coldbrook.

Your niece,
Eleanor Johnson.

Busy With Lessons.

Reeds Point.

Dear Uncle Dick:—

It's been a long time since I wrote to you but I was so busy with my school lessons that I did not get time. I am trying the contest, and I hope I may get the prize, as I never got one yet. I am sending sixty names of different kinds of paper. I was to St. John and wanted to call and see you, but it rained so hard I could not get to see you. With lots of love to you and the Corner.

Your niece,
Ruth Pitt.

IMPERIAL.

The Blindness of Love.

We think that Bob Wilton was probably the original of the little boy whose first speech was "Baby cry, mamma give," only in this case it was "daddy" who gave, not wisely but too well.

There have been many plays, stories and pictures of a mother's love, but the theme of a father's devotion is more unusual and in this Metro production Julius Steger, as the indulgent parent, has a difficult part which he handles in a masterly manner. In his pathos he is convincing and his work is careful all through the picture. Boy Wilton (George Le Guere), the wayward son of the wealthy piano manufacturer, is a spoiled boy and most of the picture is taken up with his hatefulness and selfishness. He gets a financial blow which seems to bring him to his senses and he finally manages to make up a little for his sins.

There is a football match played in the picture, and I should like to have seen even more of it and less of the excited crowd. A good point right here is where "dad" gets so excited that he tells the stranger that he is his mother's boy when Wilton makes a touchdown. If the picture had been a little shorter it would have been improved.

Grace Valentine is pleasing as Grace Maynard, and Maud Hill plays the sister convincingly. Edgar L. Davison, Walter Hitchcock, Charles P. Gotthold and Harry Neville are in the cast. The story was written by Ruth Comfort Mitchell, and pictured by Harry O. Hoyt. The direction is by Charles Horan.

It was in the nature of a compliment to the 180th Battalion (Sportsmen) that so many of the pictures at the Imperial yesterday dealt with sport in one form or another. Many of the members of this battalion of true sports who are getting into the greatest game on earth were entertained by the real life views of baseball shown in much detail, the right and wrong ways of covering a base, pitching with the famous Christy Mahewson as illustrator, and later in the Universal Weekly along came (not Ruth) but the famous world championship games with the huge crowds of spectators.

Other fine views were of Texas missions, some dating from 1730. Beautiful carvings and corridors and the picturesque belfry of St. Francis with its three bells.

The soldiers present also were shown views of submarines, Von Mackensen and his troops in Serbia and a review of German soldiers doing their goose step through the streets of Belgrade.

The large audience thoroughly enjoyed the plight of the young husband and his father-in-law's witty remarks caused much merriment. This "All Night Session" has been a great success.

Some Film This.

A company bearing the name of Atwell, Inc., for which H. B. Atwell is the sponsor, left Los Angeles this week for the interior of India to film pictures, which they say will contain more than 500,000 people, 800 elephants, and hundreds of tigers. The spot where the picture will be taken is an ancient city, four miles square, built wholly of oyx and marble. Mr. Atwell, who not long ago exhibited a number of remarkable Chinese pictures in Los Angeles, believes he is the only white man to have ever visited this strange city. He seems to have gained the friendship of the ruler, who has volunteered to loan him 500,000 extras as mentioned above. In addition he will have the King's son as a cameraman, and no less an animal expert than Clem Pope, formerly of the E. & R. Jungle Film Company, who will be taken along as general adviser and interpreter in the direction of the 100 tigers and what monkeys it is necessary to use in making the picture.

Julia Arthur's New Play.

Julia Arthur, who returned to the stage last season after a long absence to play the stellar role in "The Eternal Magdalene," has formed a company "for the production and presentation of plays and other stage attractions." The firm which has been capitalized at $15,000, will be known as the Julia Arthur company. Its directors are Julia Arthur Cheney, William A. Hoy, and Charles G. Boher, of 56 Wall street, New York.

The first offering of the new firm will be Red Wine of Roussillon, a romantic drama by William Lindsey. The play will be renamed Serenissima. It is said. Rehearsals will begin about Oct. 1 and the drama will be produced early in November. Miss Arthur will play the principal role. It is likely that several members of Miss Arthur's company in The Eternal Magdalene will be engaged for leading parts, including Alphonse Ehler, Robert Middelemass and Mary Forbes.

Red Wine of Roussillon deals with medieval times. The Count of Roussillon is believed to have been killed in the Holy Land, and his young wife has given her heart to his squire. His unexpected return gives both the Countess and the squire the choice of being faithless to their vows of love and duty. "There is plenty of red blood in the wine of Roussillon," said a book reviewer at the time of the play's publication last fall.

Mr. Lindsey, who lives in Boston, is also the author of several books: Cinder Path Tales, The Severed Mantle, and a volume of poems.

HAD YOU HEARD THAT—

Helen Holmes, star of "The Lass of the Lumberlands," has three white mice which she carries around in a canary bird cage?

Margarita Fisher (Mutual) has refused 600 proposals of marriage?

Charlie Chaplin has started a new rage? It is green derbies.

Florence Turner (Mutual) doesn't care for "souffle" eyes?

Max Dill, American (Mutual) ran away and got married the other day?

The girl was Josephine Clarke, who appeared with Dill and Kolb in "A Peck O' Pickles."

William Carroll, who will appear with Mary Miles Minter in "A Dream or Two Ago," played for 650 consecutive nights with Henry E. Dixey in "Adonis."

Alan Forrest plays the role of a young man who is electrocuted in Richard Bennett's forthcoming Mutual "The Law Makers?"

Lillian Hamilton, Mutual (Vogue) comedienne, makes Wilson stump speeches every noon at the studio?

Charlotte Burton (Mutual) received a sterling silver fish with a movable tail and a silver chain to wear it on for a mascot the other day?

Fantomas, the Gaumont (Mutual) crook is still at large? See "Fantomas."

Jack Mower, playing with Margarita Fischer, got one of his ribs broken in "Miss Jackie" last week?

ALICE FAIRWEATHER.

SELECT MEDICINE CAREFULLY

Purgatives are dangerous. They gripe, cause burning pains and make the constipated condition worse. Physicians say the most ideal laxative is Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut; they are exceedingly mild, composed only of health-giving vegetable extracts. Dr. Hamilton's Pills restore activity to the bowels, strengthen the stomach, and purify the blood. For constipation, sick headache, biliousness and disordered digestion no medicine on earth makes such remarkable cures as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Try a 25c. box yourself.

MAE MURRAY

"THE DREAM GIRL." Miss Murray plays the part of a young girl born in the slums, who, despite handicaps which surround her on every side, rises to wealth and affluence through her own efforts. The excellent cast includes Theodore Roberts, James Neill and Mary Mersch.

BRAYFUN CARTOON

One of the best laugh producers ever seen on the screen.

LIBERTY

"THE DESERT OF LOST SOULS" is the title of the sixth chapter and it's a smashing good story. Eddie Polo sets a hot pace for the bandits and the Texas Rangers are in at the finish.

There will be but one Picture Performance this afternoon, starting at 2.15 prompt.

A SPECIAL CHILDREN'S MATINEE stars at four o'clock with the Humpty Dumpty Circus, Punch and Judy and Prof. Ellis in wonderful feats of Magic. Good for children—Just as good for grown-ups.
