

THE JACKSON SOCIETY.

INSTITUTED 1874.

Object: Mutual Improvement and Greater Efficiency in Christian Work.

OFFICERS—FIRST TERM.

Wm. McMullen, President.	A. W. Taylor, Leader of the Choir.
W. J. Smith, Vice-President.	J. S. I. Wilson, Organist.
J. W. Kitching, Recording Secretary.	A. B. Osterhout, Librarian.
S. H. Anderson, Cor. Secretary.	Smith Osterhout, Assistant Librarian.
Gilbert Agar, Treasurer.	W. K. Hagar, } Leaders of
A. G. Hudson, Critic.	W. H. Barraclough, } Divisions.
Arthur Allin, Assistant Critic.

OFFICERS—SECOND TERM.

W. J. Smith, President.	R. B. Beynon, Assistant Critic.
A. W. Taylor, Vice-President.	W. H. Barraclough, Leader of Choir.
A. B. Wallace, Recording Secretary.	J. S. I. Wilson, Organist.
J. S. I. Wilson, Cor. Secretary.	Smith Osterhout, Librarian.
D. D. Birks, Treasurer.	Arthur Allin, } Leaders of
C. W. Brown, B.A., Critic.	A. E. Swartout, } Divisions.

LIBRARY.

The Society is provided with a good Library. A large number of Theological, Scientific and other Encyclopædias and other reference books, are available to members. Works on Theology, Metaphysics, History, etc., are also accessible. Many new standard works are being added from time to time.

MEETINGS.

Regular meetings are held every Saturday evening in Jackson Hall. Special opportunities are afforded for Debating, Essay Writing and Elocutionary exercises.

All Students and Undergraduates of the College are eligible for membership.