

ARTICLE Vth.

THE troops, who keep the field, shall raise their camp, drums beating, with their arms, baggage and artillery, to join the garrison of Montreal, and shall be treated in every respect the same.—“ These troops, as well as the others, must lay down their arms.”

ARTICLE VIth.

THE Subjects of his Britanic Majesty, and of his most Christian Majesty, Soldiers; Militia or Seamen, who shall have deserted or left the service of their Sovereign, and carried arms in North-America, shall be, on both sides pardoned for their crime; they shall be respectively returned to their country; if not, each shall remain where he is without being sought after or molested.—“ Refused.”

ARTICLE VII.

THE Magazines, the artillery, firelocks, sabres, ammunition of war, and, in general every thing that belongs to his most Christian Majesty, as well in the towns of Montreal and Three Rivers, as in the forts and posts mentioned in the Third article shall be delivered up, according to exact Inventories, to the commissaries who shall be appointed to receive the same in the name of his Britannic Majesty. Duplicates of the said Inventories shall be given to the Marquis de Vaudreuil.—“ This is every thing that can be asked on this article.”

ARTICLE VIII.

THE Officers, Soldiers, Militia, Seamen and even the Indians, detained on account of their wounds or sickness, as well as in the hospital, as in private houses, shall enjoy the privileges of the cartel, and be treated accordingly.—“ The sick and wounded shall be treated the same as our own people.”

ARTICLE IX.

THE British General shall engage to send back, to their own homes, the Indians, and Moraignans, who make part of his armies, immediately after the signing of the present capitulation, and, in the mean time, the better to prevent all disorders on the part of those who may not be gone away, the said Generals shall give safeguards to such persons as shall desire them, as well in the town as in the country.—“ The first part refused.”—“ There never have been any cruelties committed by the Indians of our army: and good order shall be preserved.”

ARTICLE X.

HIS Britannic Majesty's General shall be answerable for all disorders on the part of his troops, and shall oblige them to pay the Damages they may do, as well in the towns as in the country.—“ Answered by the preceding article.”

ARTICLE XI.

THE British General shall not oblige the Marquis de Vaudreuil to leave the town of Montreal before _____ and no person shall be quartered in his house till he is gone. The Chevalier de Levis, Commander of the land forces and colony troops, the Engineers, Officers of the Artillery, and Commissary of war, shall also remain at Montreal till the said day, and shall keep their lodgings.
